

On This Side Of The Sun

By Phat

Did you ever go through Ontario on a national holiday? Every lamp post has two flags displayed. On Lincoln's birthday there were four flags out on Palm Canyon drive. Yesterday, Washington's birthday, the Village did a little better. There were five flags shown.

THE VILLAGE—Martin Hertler, bell hop at the Oasis, is showing the way. For the next two weeks he's going to give all of his tips to the Red Cross. . . . L. W. Coffee, who sells lots in Desert Hot Springs, has a neat line. His buyers, he says, "have a Coffee ground." . . . Verne Gable, manager of the Lido, is sticking out his chest this week. His 2½-year-old daughter was picked by Nordon, MGM talent scout, for a screen test this week. Mitzi Triola, entertainer at the Lido is also one of Nordon's discoveries, appearing at the Lido while awaiting a call to the studios. . . . They say there's a soldier at the Ferrying Command base who has been there two years and hasn't set foot in Palm Springs. Page the Chamber of Commerce.

THIS AND THAT—Al Weingarten submits the following poem for perusal by Villagers: "He whispered in her tiny ear 'Then waited for her word, 'He saw the 'Yes' form on her lips

"Before a sound was heard. "His mind at once began to dwell "On pleasures he would reap; "For here at last he'd found a girl "Who'd do his laundry cheap."

Only thing wrong with that one is that it doesn't specify how soon he'd get it back.

ODDS AND ENDS—After the war, it is said, the walkie-talkie is going to be put to use on farms. Farm hands won't have to worry about missing the dinner call then. . . . Handkerchiefs are reported getting scarce. With cleaning tissue hard to get, that item is nothing to be sneezed at. . . . In its advice to men overseas on how to become successful letter writers, the Navy Bureau of Personnel gives the following items to write about—Love, relatives, even mother-in-laws, sports, art, love, religion, jokes (but keep them clean), postwar plans, needs, love. . . . Well, anyway, I'm half way down the column now.

MUSIC—Missed the Hit Parade last Saturday night. But my operator tells me "Don't Fence Me In" got back in top place. "Accentuate the Positive" was down in second place. . . . Lorraine Hansen says that "Close as the Pages in the Book" number is going to make it. After hearing Connie Barbeau, of the Dunes, sing it, agree with her. . . . "Run and—You know what" is on the parade, so I'm told. And you can get records of it again. . . . Juke boxes in restaurants should be equipped with ear phones. Then, if a fellow wanted to hear "Her Tears Flowed Like Wine," the other customers who wanted to eat in peace, wouldn't be afflicted.

AROUND TOWN—Among the many stories of the philanthropies of the late Tom O'Donnell, the one I like best is that told by one Villager who years ago volunteered to lay cement for the high school tennis court. He looked up and saw Mr. O'Donnell watching him. "Hey, grab a trowel and get busy," he said. "That's out of my line," said Mr. O'Donnell, "but I will pay for a fence around the court." He did. . . . A Villager, reading the news headlines this week, commented: "I wish every one kept his campaign promises as well as MacArthur. . . . Village sidewalks are too narrow. But if they widened them, people would loiter five abreast instead of four and you'd still be stymied. . . . Why not a few good alleys? Then trucks, unloading at stores, wouldn't stick clear across the street. . . .

THE WAR—The Pacific theater is drawing the headlines this week. Japan is beginning to think it took in too much territory when it hopped on Uncle Sam. With the Philippines practically reconquered and the British about to move in on the islands MacArthur by-passed to make good his promise, things look gloomy for the Nips. The only sad thing about the whole picture today is the growing casualty list. . . . Maybe all of those people who laughed so uproariously and looked at me in pity when I said I thought the Nips would fold up first, may let me laugh at them. Could be.

AND FINALLY—Jose Iturbi is coming to town March 16. Maybe he could swing "Don't Fence Me In" in keeping with the Palm Springs tradition?

Plan Rodeo Climax for West Week

Two-Day Event Scheduled Here March 24, 25

Palm Springs will go west again on March 14 and stay that way until March 25.

That much was decided this week when the Los Compadres club and the Owen B. Coffman Post, American Legion, voted to jointly sponsor a two-day rodeo to climax ten days of the Old West here.

The event, to be known as the Palm Springs Benefit Rodeo, will be staged at the Field Club Saturday and Sunday, March 24 and 25. A big parade Friday, March 23, at 11 a. m., will start the three-day climax to the event.

QUEEN TO BE NAMED

A queen will be chosen in a contest which will come to an end March 14. She will preside at all events during Western Week and will lead the parade on Friday and the grand entry to the Rodeo Saturday and Sunday.

Western attire will prevail during the week preceeding the Rodeo.

The Rodeo itself is open to all comers and many local riders are planning to enter.

FULL PROGRAM

At the Rodeo there will be quarter horse racing, brahma bull riding, brone riding, calf roping, bulldogging, clowns, trick ropers and all Rodeo features. George Rasmussen, experienced Rodeo man and who has twice aided events here, will assist the sponsors.

The American Legion Tuesday night voted to go into the event, their share of the profits to go to the proposed World Wars Memorial and Los Compadres Wednesday night added their support, their share to go to the Community Hospital.

Solicitors for Red Cross Fund Drive Wanted

Carl Haymond, finance chairman of the Palm Springs branch, Riverside county Red Cross chapter, told directors of the branch Wednesday morning that it is important to have a full crew of workers available when the annual Fund drive begins on March 1.

Palm Springs quota in the drive is $26,910.

"Solicitors are badly needed," said Mr. Haymond in urging all who can, to volunteer their services.

Mr. and Mrs. Claude Gottbehuett, former Villagers, were visitors here this week. Mr. Gottbehuett is connected with the Douglas Aircraft company in Long Beach.

Villagers and Soldiers Plan Old Home Day

"Nostalgia or just plain homesickness, a hungering to just talk to someone, anybody—from one's home town or state and when that longing is satisfied, it is next to being home itself."

This opinion, expressed by a prominent citizen of Palm Springs, who wishes for the time being to remain anonymous, started the ball a rolling with the prospect that many a soldier, stationed with the 21st Ferrying Group, Ferrying Division of the ATC, Army Air Base here, will meet some civilian from his home town and state who happens to be wintering here at Palm Springs.

OLD HOME DAYS

This Villager, who came up with the request that he would like to meet some khaki clad boy from his home town or state arose, as he said, from his reaction to the sight of groups of lonely figures of these soldiers on street corners, at loss with the world (Please Turn to Page 4)

Hospital Plans Moving Swiftly Toward Reality Chairman Tells Board

"The Palm Springs Community Hospital has advanced beyond a hope and dream and is now moving swiftly toward the goal of reality," said Florian Boyd, chairman of the hospital board of directors at a meeting at the Frances S. Stevens school Tuesday night, attended by chairmen of quota committees appointed by various organizations, business men, churches and winter residents.

Mr. Boyd presided at the meeting and introduced Earl J. Smith, hospital consultant, here to aid in the campaign.

NOT TEMPORARY

He reminded his listeners that the Palm Springs Community Hospital was not merely a temporary thing but a permanent institution, sorely needed here, and an institution which would, for years to come, serve the vital needs of the community.

One of the most interesting talks of the evening was that of Ed Wills, Junior high student, who told of the activities of the schools in the campaign. He said that the students of Nellie N. Coffman school had pledged themselves to give enough to furnish the Solarium of the new hospital.

OTHER SPEAKERS

Others who spoke on the needs of the hospital and what must be done to insure its construction and maintenance were Merrill Crockett, Ernest Alschuler, who spoke for himself and Mrs. James Whitehorn on the work of letting the people know what is going on, Robert Ransom, Mr. Smith on the work ahead, and others.

So interesting was the discussion that the group remained for two hours mapping plans to insure a Palm Springs Community Hospital.

NEED EMPHASIZED

Twice this week was the need for a Community Hospital here again emphasized. When the late beloved Tom O'Donnell's condition took a turn for the worse, Tuesday, he had to be taken to Los Angeles to a hospital. Then that same night, Ernest Grill was seriously injured and the nearest hospital available was at Pasadena.

Those in charge of the hospital fund drive said dozens of incidents in the past few weeks, emphasizing the need of a hospital here, could be pointed out.

SHOW IS OFF

The Fashion Show and Tea, scheduled for early in March, have been cancelled. Inability to obtain the desired fashions at this time of the season was given as the reason. Mr. Alschuler had. (Please Turn to Page 4)

First Citizen Of Village Succumbs

Last Rites Said At Noon Today for Pioneer Oil Man

Thomas A. O'Donnell, pioneer southern California oil man, a national figure and a Villager who did more for Palm Springs than probably any other man, succumbed early Wednesday morning at Wilshire hospital at the age of 74 years.

He was stricken Tuesday with a recurrence of an old illness and taken by ambulance to the hospital that night.

Prominent nationally in the petroleum industry, he will be remembered by Villagers most for his many philanthropies here.

DEEDS GOLF COURSE

His latest was the insurance that Palm Springs would always have a beautiful park up against the mountains to the west for it was only last Christmas that he deeded the O'Donnell golf course to the city, adding another strip of land and a reservoir a week later.

He also made the erection of the Health Center here possible and played a prominent part in countless other affairs which made the development of Palm Springs possible.

Memorial services were held this noon on the putting green on the O'Donnell golf course for Thomas A. O'Donnell.

While last rites were being said at Forest Lawn Memorial park for Palm Springs' leading citizen, Villagers gathered here to pay tribute to his memory.

In charge of the rites on the golf course were Dr. B. B. Weatherall, the Rev. Robert M. Hogarth and the Rev. C. Norman Raley.

HERE 25 YEARS

Mr. O'Donnell came to Palm Springs a quarter of a century ago and in 1925 built the hillside home. The golf course, which he recently presented the city, followed soon after. It was built by a unique method. Using a driver, then an iron, he marked the spot where the ball stopped

MISSING—Lt. Richard G. Strombom, son of Mr. and Mrs. Fred Strombom, reported missing in action over Germany.

Son of Village Couple Missing in Air Battle

Lt. Richard G. Strombom, 23, son of Mr. and Mrs. Fred S. Strombom of 1862 South Palm Canyon drive, was reported this week in a war department telegram to his parents, to be missing in action following aerial battle over Germany. His plane was reported shot down over enemy territory on January 24.

ACTIVE IN ROTC

Lt Strombom was a native of San Diego but later went with his parents to Los Angeles where he graduated from Franklin high in 1940. He was a lieutenant in the ROTC company there, and was also active in football and basketball. At the time of his enlistment as an air cadet he was attending Pasadena Junior College. At Pasadena he was a captain in the ROTC company.

He was called for cadet training at Santa Ana in May, 1943, and completed his training at La Junta, Colorado, graduating as a second lieutenant, assigned to fly A-20s.

FATHER IS VETERAN

He left the United States June 6, 1944, for overseas duty.

His father is employed at the postoffice here as a carrier and is a member of Owen E. Coffman post, American Legion. He was in World War I, serving overseas and was in the army seven years. He was manager of the El Rey hotel in Los Angeles for many years before coming to Palm Springs.

Grill Injured In Auto Crash

Ernest Grill, well known Village realtor, was in a hospital in Pasadena today, with chest injuries, fractured legs and deep cuts and bruises as result of an automobile accident Tuesday evening on Highway 111 near Cathedral City.

His automobile, going east, collided with a station wagon driven by Don Cameron, 41, of Indio, an employe at Torney General Hospital during the sand storm that night.

Twelve Warnings Issued in Week

Fire Chief Bill Leonasio said today that the drive to enforce the city law against illegal trash and rubbish fires was still being enforced to the limit. In the past week twelve warnings were issued.

The policy of the department, said the fire chief, is to issue warnings on the first offense and citations on the second.

Battle Front News Item First Word About Kin for Village Resident

For some time Mrs. Newton Hotchkiss hadn't heard from her brother-in-law, Lt. Col. George Pearson, whom she knew was in the thick of things in the Pacific.

Then, this morning she saw his name while looking over the war news in the Los Angeles Times. It was the first she had heard about him in weeks.

Mrs. Hotchkiss at once called her sister, Mrs. Sally Pearson at the latter's home in Wyoming. The story she read to her sister via long distance telephone was also the first word Mrs. Pearson had.

The story in question told of 400 Japanese trapped by airborne paratroopers in Manila who refused to surrender. Col. Pearson sent a surrender ultimatum to them, by a Filipino, riding a horse and waving a Japanese flag.

Through binoculars, troops watched the Japanese commander read the ultimatum and shake his head in refusal.

Then the Japs let the Filipino return—but first they shot his horse and made him walk back.

Golf Tournament
Reflected in Gay
Desert Inn Lobby

Lobby of Desert Inn was the popular assembly place Friday evening when the Calcutta auction was staged, prior to the playing of the Tenth Annual Golf tournament on the O'Donnell course. A capacity crowd jammed in to view the players, and see which were picked as pre-tournament favorites.

Among those selected by the audience as most likely to win were the following: (in the order named) Johnny Dawson, Oliver Sleppy, Bruce McCormick, Del Walker, Buck Weaver, Jack Gaines, Ralph Evans, Dave McEvoy, Mac Hunter, and others. (Weaver, fifth choice, won.)

ON DESERT VISIT

Carl Hammond of Tacoma, and winter resident here, was chairman of the evening's program. He too, competed in the golf tournament and was chosen by the crowd to place high on the list of winners.

Among those noted in the crowd that evening, was Jimmy Swinnerton, whose portraits and desert canvases are so well received. He and Mrs. Swinnerton are at the Inn for a brief desert visit from their Hollywood home, and are visiting at the Inn. During his stay the artist appears in cowboy clothes, which are fast returning as the smart garb for Palm Springs.

Dining at a large table that evening were Mr. and Mrs. Josuah Lilly, Mr. and Mrs. W. H. Eisenman, Mr. and Mrs. John Wheeler and Miss Aline Allison.

HOSTS AT DANCE

The Lillys, who are here from Indianapolis until the end of March, were hosts at the dinner dance Saturday evening. In their party were Mr. and Mrs. Christian Hartke, Beverly Hills; Mr. and Mrs. C. W. Allison, Mr. and Mrs. Eisenman and Miss Aline Allison. The Hartkes were house guests of the Allisons, who maintain a winter home in Palm Springs. Mr. Allison is the brother of Mrs. Lilly and Miss Allison.

MANY FROM OHIO

Ohio has an extraordinary fine representation at Desert Inn this week. Mr. and Mrs. T. W. Appleby, of Cleveland, are spending a short vacation here. From Zanesville, the hometown of so many famous people, have come Mr. and Mrs. R. E. Jordan. The L. A. Beeghly, of Youngstown, are registered at the Inn for a holiday in the sun. Arriving in mid-February for a three weeks vacation in Palm Springs are Mr. and Mrs. W. H. Eisenman, who were welcomed to Desert Inn by a host of their friends whom they met here in past seasons.

Traveling across the continent from Westport, Conn., are Mr. and Mrs. E. H. Schwab, who will stay until early March.

SEATTLE DAY, TOO

February 15 might have been termed "Seattle Day" at the Inn, as several of the most popular seasonal guests arrived from the northwest for extended stays in the desert heat. Mr. and Mrs. B. Marsh, who will stay until April 1, were given a royal welcome on their return this year. Mrs. C. B. Blethen, also of Seattle, came south for her annual stay of one month. Mrs. Gilbert LeBaron Duffy, sister-in-law of Mrs. Blethen, has been at the Inn most of the winter and will stay on into the spring months. Over for a Thursday to Monday weekend visit were three Pasadena residents, Mrs. Edward Chase, Mrs. Allen Chase and Mrs. Lou Davis.

Mr. and Mrs. Donald G. Keeler, who spent a month here before Christmas, returned for a short visit. Mrs. Keeler again is catching all eyes with her many smart sports outfits.

Good Neighbor Policy Mostly on Paper
Speaker Tells Club Women in Talk on American Neighbors to the South of Us

BY MARTHA FORWARD

"There is abroad in this great land the 'Good Neighbor Policy.' Neighbor countries have existed there and been in our back yards for centuries. How few of us know our 20 Latin American countries to the South? How can we expect to be good friends of those countries if we do not even know their names?"

These were the opening remarks of a profound and pertinent lecture by lovely Bertita Harding before members of the Palm Springs Woman's Club and their guests on Monday afternoon.

REALIZE AT LAST

Bertita Harding, youthful, slight in stature, alluringly feminine, possesses such resourceful channels of information associated more frequently with diplomats of mature years and experience. Hers is a background colored by travel and personal association with the prominent personalities of two continents—the Old World and the new.

"It is only during the last critical years that we have finally realized what we have neglected doing," said Mrs. Harding. "In the past years, when we did our traveling, we went to Europe. We must see the cathedral spires of England—the gay Parisian night life and the blossoming lanes of Normandy in France—Ireland, the Emerald Isle—oriental China and Japan—absorbing the Old World's culture. For exotic pleasure we sailed to the Hawaiian Islands—playground of the Pacific."

PLACES FAR AWAY

How many of us took the time to visit the Latin countries lying south of us? What we want most is always that which is far away—we always feel that we can visit at any time those places close to us.

Then the ominous rumbling of a global war were heard over Europe. No more could we embark on those pleasure trips to the Old World, and those already there were being returned on the exchange ship, the Gripsholm.

Suddenly gayly colored posters appeared alluring us to go into that portion of the world that was not at war. Now that we have gotten around to South America, it is too uncertain—altogether we were caught up too late.

RESULTS PITIFUL

"The results of the first Pan-American conference at Lima, Peru, were pitiful," postulates Mrs. Harding. "One year later at the second Pan-American conference at Havana, Cuba, 18 of the Latin American countries were won, leaving out only Argentina and Chile."

"The winning of Chile at the 3rd American conference held in Rio de Janeiro on June 3rd, 1941, was a distinguishing feather in the cap of Sumner Welles, in her opinion, for Chile is a most valuable asset to us with her inexhaustible fields of nitrate."

"It is the diplomats, without port-folio, whom we have to thank for our friendly relations with our South American countries," asserts Mrs. Harding. "School teachers, professors, writers and artists, who saved a portion of their earnings each year against the time when they could sail on a tramp freighter or a liner—not on a luxurious fruit-boat—to the land of their dreams. There they lived with the native families—not at the fashionable watering places—learning to speak the language and establishing friendly relations."

NEED HELP

"We need help now from our South American neighbors—not just sympathetic applause. We need their products. Brazil, glamorous girl of the Americas, has tremendous stores of iron ore, immense chemical deposits, jungles of tropical fruits. Brazil has the world's coffee. She is the mother of rubber and citrus fruits. Brazil is the world's most serious democracy."

"That enigma, Argentina, is the Number One country in the Latin American world—the one country that is most like us. When the Spanish Conquistadores entered Argentina it was an empty land, thus its pure European blood and culture. Argentina has advanced tremendously. They produce what we produce."

"We are now asking Argentina to strangle herself economically and are offering nothing in exchange. If we do not trade with Argentina she will trade where she can trade—Axis nations were her best customers. Good government is good housekeeping and Argentina cannot be expected to upset her housekeeping just to please us. England trades with Argentina and when the war is over England will not be sulking at by Argentina but she is still sulking at us."

"The past illumines the present—the present is prophetic of the future," concluded Mrs. Harding. "I am not asking you to love Europe less—I am asking you to love America more."

Preceding the lecture, Mrs. William A. Lippman, the club's president, asked Mrs. Armand Turronet to report on the results of the club's efforts toward raising their quota for the contemplated Palm Springs Community Hospital. The generous response financially is most gratifying and Mrs. Lippman's appeal for speedy cooperation was touching in its sincerity.

NAME COMMITTEE

Mrs. Henry S. Reid was chosen as chairman of the nominating committee for officers for the coming year. Those nominated to serve with her are Mrs. Cecil Isenagie, Mrs. Frank Cutler, Mrs. Merrill Crockett and Mrs. John Williams.

Mrs. Ray Wilson was chairman of hostesses for tea assisted by Mrs. Carl Lykken, Mrs. Fred Holding, Mrs. John Lapp, Mrs. F. D. Johnson, Mrs. Charles E. Dart and Mrs. Maud McQuillan. Mrs. Wilson and Mrs. Lapp presided at the tea table centered with its arrangement of spring flowers in a crystal bowl.

Mrs. Merrill Crockett was assisted in receiving at the door by Mrs. Homer Jenkins and Mrs. Frank Purcell.

The next program, on March 5th, will feature a monodrama in costume, "The Invincible Miss Kemble," presented by Jeanne Welby, actress, producer and costume designer.

Starred Officer Takes Orders from GIs in Passing the Ammunition During Salerno Battle, Local Man Relates

"And the General forgot his rank and passed the ammunition."

Captain Harry J. Voelker, Jr., information and education officer of the 21st Ferrying Group, Ferrying Division, of the Air Transport Command, Palm Springs, smiled as he made this statement in recounting his experience while overseas for 33 months as an officer with the 151st Field Artillery.

It was during the battle on the beach at Salerno, the Captain remembered when the incident happened. His outfit could not reach its assigned positions. The first wave of infantry had been pinned down by vicious enemy fire from well prepared gun emplacements.

AT CLOSE RANGE

"Each gun and its crew acted individually and not as a concerted fighting unit," the former artilleryman recalled, "firing at point blank range as rapidly as it could load, German Mark 4 tanks were pouring a deadly fire into our positions from only 150 yards."

Then it was that Brigadier General Coltz, commanding the artillery of the 36th division happened along and joined the crew of one of these rapidly firing 105 millimeter artillery pieces. During this self-assumed role, the high ranking officer, took his orders from an enlisted man, generally in charge of a gun crew, the Captain pointed out.

FORGETS RANK

"He forgot his rank and took orders from the crew chief, passing the heavy shells to the gun," Captain Voelker said. "It was an inspiring example for us all. He did what any good American would have done under similar circumstances."

Later during a three-day rest period for this gun crew, General Coltz sought out these soldiers with whom he had manned this gun and congratulated each man individually for a job well done, Captain Voelker said.

GRATEFUL, TOO

Here the young Captain's eyes lit up with the memory of this incident. "The reply of these men in essence was: "General, you did a good job yourself, Sir!"

Captain Voelker left the peaceful surroundings of the Missouri University, where he was studying journalism to accept a second lieutenant's commission in the artillery, in September 1941. He was assigned to the 151st Field Artillery of the 34th Division and sent to Camp Clairborne, La., After Pearl Harbor, his organization went overseas with the first American Expeditionary Forces, landing in Belfast, Ireland, January 26, 1942.

FIRST IN TUNISIA

The Captain's first action against the enemy was at Pichon, Tunisia, on Feb. 10. Throughout the entire African campaign, in which his battalion of artillery took a part, not a man was lost through direct enemy action. However, three men in an outpost with the infantry were captured by the Germans and there were some casualties due to land mines.

The Captain remembered Kasserine Pass rather vividly and the lesson the German's taught the Yankees in tank warfare. "My outfit along with American air power, were able to get what tanks were left out of that difficulty," the officer added.

REMEMBERS HILL 609

The Germans felt the devastating effect of massed American artillery for the first time at Faunduke, Tunisia, the officer said. He was to remember Hill 609 occupied by the Nazis, which was studded with concrete gun emplacements.

"Hill 609 probably doesn't strike any cord of remembrance to many but to us—well there were many hills like 609 later." The Captain stopped talking for a moment as his mind raced back to this action.

On Sept. 5, 1943, Captain Voelker and his artillery unit moved up to a port of embarkation and were loaded aboard LST boats.

IN HIGH SPIRITS

"We knew we were going into action somewhere and the guesses were anywhere from the Crimea to France," the officer smiled. "When orders were finally opened at sea, we knew at last it was Salerno."

He spoke about the high spirits of the men on the voyage and how they sang songs, played cards and "shot craps" when all of the time they knew they were going into battle from which some would never return. Once in the "Ducks" their joviality changed to that of tenseness and the job ahead.

"We knew the beach was going to be a tough nut to crack," the officer narrated. "It was a regular hell with German 88's and machine guns firing away at us. But only one duck capsized and the men were fished out of the bay without loss of life."

ANOTHER STORY LATER

It was another story later and many of Capt. Voelker's comrades in arms, he said, lie buried along the road from below Salerno at Alta Villa to Cassino.

"The terrain was against us," he pointed out. It was one mountain, each an impregnable fortress, and down another one. I left many of my friends lying on those mountain sides and—well, it is still going on across the rugged mountains of Italy."

What original members of the Captain's old outfit are still living have been over there now for three years "and they are few," he said. He declared that the 34th

More Workers Still Needed by Local Red Cross

Because many women who otherwise would volunteer their aid to the production rooms of the Palm Springs branch, Red Cross, have hesitated because they thought a uniform was needed, Mrs. Ernest Alschuler, chairman of the sewing room, and Mrs. Jerry DuBose, chairman of surgical dressings this week said that a fresh cotton dress was all that was needed.

They issued an appeal for more volunteers for the production rooms as the need is constantly greater.

Division has had more combat hours than any other American division in this war.

BACK TO ST. LOUIS

While in Ireland, Captain Voelker was promoted to first lieutenant and he received his captain's bars after he was transferred to the Air Corps in July, 1944. His ambition is to return to his home in St. Louis and write music once this war is over. However, he is still indefinite whether he would like to pursue this as a profession or an avocation. He liked working evenings and weekends on the St. Louis Post Dispatch as a reporter writing sports and he might want to take up journalism at Missouri University. He doesn't know right now, he said.

NOW A "DEAR JOHN"

As far as marriage and all the things that go with it, he has no plans either.

"I say, now, because there was a girl to whom I was engaged, but on my return to the U. S. I found I had become a member of "Dear John's" club. This mythical organization is composed of members of the armed forces who have been forgotten by the girls they left behind.

Mrs. Naef Here On Brief Visit

Mrs. Kathleen Naef, former resident of Cathedral City and well known in the Village, was here Tuesday, looking after business affairs. The Naefs still own a home in Cathedral City.

Her husband, Weston Naef, is director of research at Fort Hueneme in Ventura county and has been for the past three years. Mrs. Naef's oldest son, George Smith, is a first lieutenant in the Marine Air Corps, and a younger son, Bob Smith, is completing his course at Ventura Junior College and will join the air corps on graduation.

Their youngest son, born shortly before they left here, is now three years of age.

Marjorie Rambeau Hurt in Accident

Marjorie Rambeau, star of the old silents and of Los Angeles and New York stage shows, and a recent visitor here, was in a Los Angeles hospital seriously injured as result of an automobile accident last weekend.

The coupe in which she and her sister, Thelma Rambeau, were riding, was wrecked when it crashed into a big tree near her home.

Get Acquainted With Your Village Businessman

This week, get acquainted with Sam Satlitz—you probably have he's the Sam end of Sam and Leo. Being the biggest of the two, we took him first. Leo Baker's life will be bared here later.

Sam Satlitz is a native of Chicago, Ill., but came out west at an early date. He conducted a business similar to Sam and Leo's Delicatessen and Market here, when in Beverly Hills but came to the Village in 1936. Now, the firm of Sam and Leo has a well known shop in the Plaza and a big market and delicatessen in the El Paseo block.

One of Sam's biggest boosters is wife, Cecile. She likes Palm Springs, too.

Sam said to be sure to mention Jean and Judy, three and one-half year old twins, and Myrna, now nine. Three daughters which means that he'll have plenty of boys around the house soon, now.

He's a civic minded citizen and in the nine years, going on ten, that he's been here, he has been interested in everything tending to build up the Village.

initiated and installed in their respective offices:

Also initiated were John Harp, Donald DuBose, Eric Lubenow and Kenneth Youngs.

MEETING IS HELD

At the first business meeting of the newly installed Chapter, Wednesday evening, Master Councilor John Outcault presided. Also attending were the following members of the advisory council: Bryson Amos, chairman, Lloyd Simon, John Hormel, Richard Outcault, George Bell, Charles Hill, Kenneth DuBose, Charles Raymond, James Henderson and Chester Hoobler.

The Order of DeMolay is an international fellowship of young men between the ages of fourteen and twenty-one. It has for its purpose the teaching of clean and upright living and the development of good citizenship. The movement was founded in 1919 in Frank S. Land in Kansas City, Missouri. It started with a group of nine high school boys. Today more than two million American boys have passed through its portals and of those more than one million are already in our country's Armed forces. The entire international organization of the Order is unified and governed by a group of outstanding Masons known as the Grand Council of the Order of DeMolay. Its executive offices are located in Kansas City, Mo.

DeMolay is sponsored by recognized Masonic bodies just like churches and clubs sponsor the Boy Scouts, but is not in any sense a junior Masonic order. Its supreme effort is to create leaders and develop character.

The Southern Jurisdiction of California embraces that section of the State south from Santa Barbara. It comprises 51 chapters with a membership of three thousand.

The creation of Palm Springs Chapter established a record in this jurisdiction in that from the time the idea was presented to the Masonic Luncheon Group until the Chapter was duly installed, only fifty-one days elapsed. Prior to this, the record had been held by Lexington Chapter of El Monte which got theirs started in sixty-five days.

Mrs. John Connell and daughter Barbara, are in San Diego this weekend, visiting John Connell, former councilman, now with the U. S. Navy.

and as he termed it, and: "sick for the sight of someone from his home town".

As a result, Gordon Feekings, commander of the Owen Coffman Post of the American Legion, the Chamber of Commerce and other citizens of Palm Springs, in conjunction with the 21st Ferrying Group, have set March 9 aside as "get-together-day". On this day, citizens of Palm Springs who would like to meet a soldier from his or her home state, will be invited as a body to the Army Air Base to witness the weekly retreat parade. After the ceremonies, a designated spot on the military installation will be set aside where the soldiers and civilians home-townners will meet.

WHERE TO REGISTER

In the meantime to avoid confusion, according to the plan, Mrs. Harold Lienau, hostess at Palm Springs Dugout, which is operated by the American Legion, will act as repository for the names of those civilians who wish to meet a soldier from the old neighborhood. All a person has to do, is to call Mrs. Lienau on the telephone, giving his or her name and the state and town from which they hail. In this way, those who come from New York, Missouri, Kansas, Iowa and other states, will be placed in a group to facilitate their meeting of a soldier from the same state.

So that arrangements can be made in advance to admit these civilians to the Army Air Base, March 6, at 5 P. M., will be the final day or "deadline" for names to be accepted.

FINEST THING, YET

"This is the finest thing that has come to Palm Springs yet," declared Mr. Feekings. "I was a soldier in the last world war and as a result, I know just what meeting somebody from one's state can mean to a soldier. There will come a day when these soldiers will be civilians again and they will well remember the day they met Mr. and Mrs. Jones way out here in Palm Springs."

As the names are received by Mrs. Lienau, they will be published in editions of this newspaper prior to March the 9th, "Get-together-day".

Hospital Plans ...

of the publicity committee, said that a suitable substitute would be arranged.

Monday night a group met at the Del Tahquitz with Earl Smith to discuss plans for the campaign. Present were Chairman Florian Boyd, Ernest Alschuler, Charles Burket, Fred Ingram, Robert Ransom, Alvin Weingarten, Ray Wilson, and Philip Goldstone. They met with Earl Smith to talk over progress of the campaign.

ISSUES STATEMENT

Mr. Boyd issued the following statement:

"The vital need of a hospital has long been recognized by the permanent residents of Palm Springs, as well as those who spend their winters here. The reason for this recognition is based on the fact that there can be no thought of security and safety in the minds of men and women when, in their community, no provision has been made for hospital facilities in case of sudden and serious illness, epidemics and accidents.

"Palm Springs holds top rank as one of the world's most famous resorts. The Village holds an enviable record for gracious hospitality, yet when illness strikes Palm Springs, it is not properly equipped to meet an emergency.

"It is to overcome this handicap that all business men and women and all organizations are bending their effort to overcome a grave and serious problem."

MORE ABOUT ...O'Donnell Death ...

for the first green. This followed with all the clubs in his bag until he had the nine-hole course plotted.

In 1932 it was opened to the public and in 1944, given to the Village. Throughout this time, he continued to improve the course, never resting in his desire for one of the best.

RECURRENT ILLNESS

Mr. O'Donnell's death was due to heart complications which had troubled him for several years.

Born in Erie county, Pennsylvania, he came to California when 18 years of age and a few years later became field superintendent for Charles S. Canfield and E. L. Doheny, who drilled the first wells in Los Angeles.

ONE OF BIG FOUR

He directed the interests of Canfield, Doheny & O'Donnell in Coalinga when the American Petroleum Company was formed in 1907, followed by another company in 1909-1910, the American Oil Fields Company.

Two years later Mr. O'Donnell was instrumental in merging the two companies into the California Petroleum Corporation and when Doheny became interested in Mexican oil properties, O'Donnell was designated to look after his California holdings.

The California Petroleum Corporation later was taken over by the Texas Company and Mr.

O'Donnell, who had large interests, was named a director, later retiring.

FIRST PRESIDENT

Doheny, Canfield and Max Whittier, the latter an associate in many oil ventures, all preceded Mr. O'Donnell in death. Together they were known as "the big four".

During World War I, Mr. O'Donnell served with the Fuel Conservation Board. He was director of oil production for the United States and was first president of the American Petroleum Institute, a post to which he was reelected several times.

LAST RITES TODAY

Surviving are his widow, Mrs. Winifred O'Donnell; two daughters, Mrs. Ruth Davis of Los Angeles and Mrs. Doris Connolly of Berkeley; a sister, Mrs. Mamie Leister of Los Angeles, and a stepson, Dr. William W. Jenney of Los Angeles.

Funeral services were conducted this noon in the Church of the Reconciliation, Forest Lawn Memorial park. Many friends from the Village were present.

Mr. O'Donnell had scores of friends in Palm Springs who recalled today his many acts which contributed to the betterment of the Village.

HIGH TRIBUTE PAID

At yesterday's meeting of the Lions club, Assemblyman Philip L. Boyd, prefaced his talk with a tribute to the late oil man.

"Yesterday morning, Palm Springs lost its leading citizen and our nation a great man. Fortunate circumstances have permitted me to know him well during the past seventeen years," said Mr. Boyd.

"Tom O'Donnell was sincerely interested in our Village and its citizens.

"From the humble early experience of a member of a well drilling crew he rose with phenomenal success to the head of the petroleum industry during the first World War. His judgment was respected by presidents of the United States, foreign diplomats, industrial leaders, business associates, employees, and his multitude of friends. No one will ever know the amount of aid he has given freely to the unfortunate.

"My life is richer for his friendly interest in my civic activities. I cannot continue with any statement before you—his friends, without paying this tribute to a truly great American to whom we shall always point with pride as one of Palm Springs valuable citizens."

If you want to hear "Rum and Coca-Cola" really sung, or "There Goes That Song Again," or "I'm Making Believe," or any of the top tunes put out in a way that's really telling them, you'll have to go to the Rendezvous some time before Wednesday.

For on that day, Vaughan and Whitney plan to start a vacation.

The popular entertainers who have attracted throngs to Louis Beck's Rendezvous in the past weeks, terminate their engagement Feb. 28 and plan to take a rest. They'll go to Hollywood and just loaf around their apartment, redecorating it and fixing it up after a highly successful engagement here.

Announcement of their successors at the popular cafe will be made later by Mr. Beck.

ON THE WAR-PATH

WITH ART JONES

Owing to the innumerable concerted attacks made by anonymous antagonizing critics upon the phenomenal parathetical style that has previously manifested itself in this harangue, this week's anecdote shall be specifically dedicated to those followers of the war-path who cannot comprehend "Buns", "Egg-head" and "G'rilla" or decode "Bwang" and "Gas stamp," and especially to prohibit the ribbing that "Yo-yo" receives from his mater each Friday!!

Proving themselves worthy heirs of the ancient Indian tradition concerning hair-removal, our "mighty midgets" took to the well-worn war-path upon entering the "C" tournament held at Coachella last Saturday to scalp the Beaumont Cougars 21 to 11, and Coachella's Arabs 22 to 13, thus capturing the first League championship won by Palm Springs this year!

Representing our dear ole Alma Mater in the free-for-all were Bernardo Hernandez, Bobby Jones, Jerry Manley, Dick Hines, Billy Sandeffer, Jimmy Flynn and Bobby Flavin, all of whom gave a very fine performance on behalf of the Maroon and White.

Our terrifying Redskins first encountered the Blue and White quintet in the curtain-raiser of the tourney, but the first few minutes told the story. Jonsey, Manley and Hernandez each swished a hay-maker after which Hines contributed to the cause with a lay-in and a set-shot. Bob, who was high-point man of the contest with 7 points, tossed in a one pointer as the initial half ended with P. S. holding the long end of an 11-3 tally.

Bob Dart, faithfully performing his duty as manager, added to the confusion during the intermission by swishing a once-in-a-life-timer from mid court! He promised "never again".

Returning to the hard-wood, Coach Thompson's tribe were caught off balance momentarily while the Cougars scraped up 8 points, but soon got back in the groove as Bob added 4 more digits, Manley and Hines each netted two points, and Bernardo tapped in a set-up before the battle terminated in a 21 to 11 rout.

The Arabs then took the spotlight by giving the Bronchos a cheap thrill and edged them out 38 to 29.

After a lunch consisting of toast and tea, the finals were set off. Although the Green and Yellow hoard put up a good argument, they were unable to match the burning pace set by the Indian quintet sparked by sharpshooting Jones and Hernandez. The brilliant team-work and defensive action exhibited by our fellas put the game on ice, and aided by the 6 points each from Jones and Hernandez, Manley's 4 points and 2 digits each for Jimmy, Billy and Dick the championship was clinched to tune of 22 to 13.

The honorary captains of the three basketball teams were "selected last week by the lettermen of the respective squads. Joe Brummitt was chosen captain of the "A" group, and Bernardo Hernandez was given the unusual but well deserved honor of representing both the "B" and "C" quintets. The basketball award assembly will be held in the near future.

As most everyone knows, softball season commenced this week with many contenders for the various positions turning out Monday, after school. Details of the practice and "Dope" on the future will be messed with next week.

The 1945 softball season schedule is as follows: March 9, P. S. at Beaumont; March 16, Banning at P. S.; March 23, Coachella at P. S.; April 6, P. S. at Banning; April 13, Beaumont at P. S.; April 20, P. S. at Coachella. All home games will begin at 3 p. m. There will be no "B" league this year.

Preliminaries for Lions Club Speech Contest Finished

Speaking on the topic of "What My Parents Mean to Me," Cecile Morris, Mortel Goldberg and Sallie Lockett were winners in the preliminary Lions Club Student Speakers Contest, held during third period in the auditorium, on Wednesday, February 21. The three winners will compete in the community contest to be held at the local Lions Club on March 8.

Judges for the preliminary contest were Mr. W. R. Hillery, Francis Crocker and John Williams.

Miss Mary Louise Gaylord, oral arts adviser, is in charge of the student speakers of P. S. H. S.

Juniors Present Valentine's Day Dance at School

In commemoration of St. Valentine's Day, a semi-formal dance was presented by the Junior Class Friday, February 16, in the school auditorium.

Music for the dance was by recording under the direction of Bob Bell.

During intermission, DeLorse Roth sang "How Little We Know," and "Into Each Night Some Rain Must Fall," accompanied by C. J. Lyter, followed by a little "boogie" featuring John Wilson.

Cokes and cookies were served as refreshment.

What's Cooking? Students Learn at Gas Co. Assembly

Before the enthusiastic student body of Palm Springs high, the Southern California Gas company presented part two of a two part assembly Thursday, February 15.

This second assembly consisted of the preparation of lunch and dinner, in relation to the "Basic Seven." Students were well instructed in the art of packing nutritious and attractive lunches and in preparing a tasty, delicious dinner.

In order to prove that men are better cooks than women, Mr. MacLeary, Master of Ceremonies for the group, prepared a green salad. Students were amused when "Farmer" MacLeary came through the rear exit of the auditorium with a wheelbarrow of green vegetables to prepare one little salad.

Eighth graders from the Nellie Coffman school were again guests at the assembly.

Cook-books were given to each student as he passed through the door at the end of assembly.

"Nazi Strike," the second in the series of film on "Why We Fight" was shown in the assembly last Monday by Capt. Joe Caraway. The film was preceded by a short talk given by Capt. Volker in which he told of his experiences in fighting the Germans. Capt. Volker took part in action against Salerno, Anzio, Hill 609, Cassino, Fondue and several other places. He was connected with an artillery unit of the 34th division.

Next week Capt. Caraway will present the third film of the series entitled "Divide and Conquer." Capt. Caraway will also bring another guest speaker who has seen action against the enemy.

Palm Springs High School Smoke Signal

Story of Football Told Students by U.S.C. Grid Coach

Jeff Craveth, head coach at the University of Southern California, thrilled eighth grade and high school students with a play-by-play account of the history of football, in a surprise portion of the two-period assembly, held Thursday morning, February 15. It was a return engagement for the Trojan coach, due to the efforts of Dr. Frank Purcell, for he spoke in assembly here, a year ago.

Coach Craveth emphasized his and other outstanding University coaches' ideals of sportsmanship, clean-play and honor. Loyalty to parents is demanded; then a boy will respect anything he may enter.

"The desire to win is the one thing that is saving our country," he said, "and without it you are only cheating yourself. Success or failure depends entirely on whether members of a team are willing to give up a few things." He cited one boy in particular, Don Burnside, a U. S. C. freshman, from Grant Union High School in Sacramento, whom he believes to be the cleanest, most courageous boy in football today.

Good sportsmanship includes trying your best not to criticize players or officials. "Loyalty and teamwork are the two qualities that do more for fellows than anything else. We are all on a team, the greatest team in the world, and our job is to be strong members," Mr. Craveth continued.

He recalled the interesting phases that our modern game of football has gone through to become the popular sport it is today. In old-time college football, there wasn't even a line of scrimmage. The players, who were picked for brawn and not brain, wore no helmets, so the game was a hazardous adventure.

May We Introduce

By MORT AND BOB

BOY OF THE WEEK

Our royal flash this week was born, strangely enough to relate, in that booming metropolis of New York, on February 28, 1928.

Here are some statistics. The favorite actor of Mr. X is none other than that old dream man Jimmie Durante. Well, birds of a feather flock together. As for his favorite movie femme de fatal, when asked, a feeble croak issued forth from his consumptive frame and upon translation demanding deep thought, I discovered it was Betty Grable. The classics and Boogie Woogie both hold an equally warm spot in the generous heart of our hero and there is nothing that peevish him more than a party that's no fun.

Besides his silken dark hair resembling spun coal and those limpid, lush eyeball used mainly for the purpose of rolling at gals, he has also another important factor. He has a Charles Boyer mouth.

If you haven't guessed the answer to the 64 dollar question yet may we tell you. We present to you California's next senator, Ralph V. Galzerano, Jr., or "Galzy" as he is commonly known.

GIRL OF THE WEEK

Well, another week, another column. It so happens that I am introducing a Junior girl (bwang). She was born in the big city of Los Angeles on March 11, 1929.

She goes in for those dreamy records like "Together" and her favorite band leader is Tommy Dorsey. This female goes in for such foods as steaks and cherry pie a la mode.

Her pet peeve is bobby socks and high heels. She is 5' 2", weighs 112 pounds. She has long reddish brown hair and great big brown eyes. Her favorite colors are green and yellow and she will usually be seen running around with De Lorse, Hogg, Hookey and a lot of good looking girls. Now we come to her love life. She said she has none but there is a twinkle in her eye and we have heard rumors about "Buns" Peterson taking her swimming a couple of times. Maybe it happened this way—who can tell.

This cute little woman, in case you haven't guessed, is Julie Martineau.

GAZOOZIT

This is your Gazoozit reporter again stepping upon the scene to drop you some of my most prized items of boredom.

Since action sometimes accompanies a good lead, what could be more reet than a good old-fashioned Palm Springs argument to begin Gazoozit with? The argument originated with a disagreement concerning Sparky and between those two action fanatics, Delano and Metzendorf, who seem to agree on one thing anyhow. They both have their eyes on the same little gal.

The dance Friday was really swell and lots of kids seemed to be enjoying themselves. Some couples there were St. George and Hookey, Sparky and Delano, Barbara Inman and Bobby Bell, C. J. and Gillar, Jeanette and Harvey, Ed Wills and Barbara Croft. Delorse Roth sang several times with C. J. at the piano for the enthusiastic crowd. Everyone enjoyed it.

Delano's topless rod has changed hands. From now on when you see it, try to remember that it doesn't belong to him anymore. It is now one of the prized possessions of Les, and the one that used to belong to Les now runs under the ownership of Delano. In case you can't get it straight, there was a trade. Since then I've been wonderin' if Delano used some secret combination for getting the wheels of the zoot little automobile to running. If so, I wish some one could have let us know about it that most eventful evening of the dance. Jumping out and lending a helping hand is perfectly okay, sometimes, but when it is in the middle of the night, and you are cold and hungry, and your fallen arches keep on falling, it is a different matter, entirely.

Visitors to Tahquitz Falls Sunday had a gay old time, but some muscle men should realize by now that the water up there, besides being rather wet, is also slightly icy. Purple and shivering, the swimmers came up 'new men.'

Lots of us dear children turned up at the show Sunday night. Rita Hayworth's "You Excite Me" dance brought forth more than one verbal "bwang" from the male of the species. Scattered all over the place were Dart, J. B., Barbara Emigh, Chuck St. George, Bobby Jones, Joanne Wilkes, Bob Covington, from Coachella, Bob Vallier and Connie Rounselle from Santa Ana, C. J. and Whitey, Bonnie Sue and Les, Chuck Nimietz, and as ever, your humble servant, LeLo.

Well, here I was just about to compose a meager concluding paragraph when it happened to dawn on me, out of the clear sky, that I could write on and on, for years and years, with all the information that's just been thrown my way. I won't say that I'll write for years and years, but I will write on for a few seconds anyhow. Here goes. Seems Bob Hann and Betty Ann are still going strong. Keep it up kids! . . . Lots of boys paid a visit to Banning Saturday. Their visit had something to do with De Molay. Among the visitors were Harvey Gorcester, Bob Hann, Warner Moore, J. O., Wilson, Klug and others . . . We've seen Tom Slye around town these last few days looking reet as a navy man. He made his appearance — and oh what an appearance! . . . Mort Algate, who has made a change of residence, is now staying with Loren Rude . . . Dick Mosely's rod, having staged a slight transformation, has appeared on the scene a stunning and quaint red, as bright as the dear boy himself. . . . Patty Manley, that brown-eyed, blond-brunette, also at the dance Friday . . . As you may have heard, the one thing in the world that keeps Porky happy is being able to play a good game of tit-tat-toe on the shirt of some one of his victims . . . Julie and Klug have been seen around over the weekend . . . Tommy Peterson had a date with Barbara Emigh . . . There was another little get-together Saturday night consisting of Harvey, Bob Vallier, Joan Whorton, Les, Bonnie Sue, Porky, Chuck Nimietz, and others. This time we didn't tab it a slumber party . . . Art Jones was seen all alone up in Tahquitz Sunday but he didn't seem to be finding any fault with seclusion. . . . John Wilson, Klug, St. George and all the other heart throbs seemed to have gotten the idea

"Harmony Hall" Making Progress

Rehearsals for the coming opera, "Harmony Hall" were held Tuesday, Wednesday, and Thursday of last week in the auditorium by Alexander Hammond. The cast met at 7:00 p. m. and finished about nine.

The school provided transportation from Cathedral City in E. E. Oertel's car and the school bus brought the other students from Palm Springs.

The first rehearsal was held in the auditorium Thursday, February 15, by Mr. Hammond, Miss Mary Louise Gaylord and Miss Vashke Hronis.

of those little checked dime-store caps all at the same time. Leave it to the gentlemen. Well, this is all for this week, but before I bring down the key which prints the last little period, I do wish to state the following: I promise next week's Gazoozit will be really interesting, worth while, zoot, and spectacular, on one pending condition. All I ask, in order to fulfill my promise, is that something really interesting, spectacular and zoot takes place between now and then.

Student Council Hears Data on New Village Hospital

Earl Smith, a consultant for the Palm Springs Community Hospital Board of Directors, spoke to members of the Student Council at a special meeting on Monday, on P. S. H. S. participation in the drive to raise $200,000.00 for construction of a hospital. He pointed out the necessity for a hospital in Palm Springs, as the nearest ones are in Redlands and Riverside. Every organized group in town has been given a quota for subscriptions to be solicited, and a tentative figure has been set for P. S. H. S.

Continued at the regular Tuesday meeting, the Council voted to send Coni Tilghman and Loren Rude to the meeting at the Francis S. Stevens school, Tuesday evening, as representative of the Student Body. Joanne Hookey, John Klug, Coni Tilghman and Ed Wills were appointed to the committee for the drive.

Also discussed at the regular meeting were awards to be given members who have been on the Council for a semester. To be entitled to keep an emblem, the candidate must remain on the Council for the balance of the year.

It was decided that hereafter, in assembly, the seniors will be dismissed first, followed by the Juniors, sophomores and freshmen, respectively, to eliminate the rush usually following dismissal. At the close of assemblies, the Alma Mater will be sung. Trudy Sawyer was appointed to see that the words are written in the auditorium bulletin board.

Volley Ball Season Launched by Girls In Practice Event

With a toss-lift-catch-and over, the girls' gym classes initiated the volleyball season, Monday, by learning the fundamentals of team-play. Spectators and participants both noticed the lack of team-work on the part of class teams during the noon volleyball tournaments held earlier in the year, so Physical Education instructor Vashke Hronis gave the girls exercises in handling the ball.

First, the team members would merely catch and throw the ball back and forth over the net, quickly, without letting it touch the ground. Then, the server would throw the ball to the opposing team, and the receiver lifted the ball to a team-mate who would catch it and throw it over to a weak spot in the serving team. By progressing to more complicated routines, the girls learned to control the ball with a greater degree of accuracy.

Although other sports have been more popular, the daily games are looked forward to by the group of new volleyball enthusiasts, who have found that playing the right way can be fun.

March of Dimes Goal Surpassed

Responding willingly to the President's call for the Infantile Paralysis fund, the students of Palm Springs high topped last year's sum of $19.83 with $23.55.

The March of Dimes drive in P. S. H. S. was represented by Carol Burket, who has participated in previous Paralysis drives.

Half the collection will be exercised in research of Paralysis; the remainder to be used to fight the dreaded disease in Riverside county.

It is becoming better understood that we live in a spiritually mental universe. This, however, is not apparent to mortal, material sense, which can cognize only materially. One learns in Christian Science that man's true being is spiritual. This should be apparent to all, for God is Spirit and man created in God's likeness must necessarily be spiritual. There can be no other man.

The account of creation which is given in the first chapter of the book of Genesis, studied in the light of Christian Science—and it should be kept in mind that all Christian Science demonstrations are based on the understanding of true creation—shows clearly that God is the one infinite, divine Mind, the only intelligence, the only creator, that all that really exists reflects and expresses this one creative Mind, and that man is Mind's highest idea.

In this light it is also seen that the purpose of the allegory which is presented in the second and third chapters of Genesis is to show the unreality of matter and evil, or the so-called mortal mind, in contradistinction to the grand reality of God's perfect spiritual creation. Rightly interpreted this allegory exposes the status of mortal man—shows that this so-called man is a falsity, a mere counterfeit of the man of God's creating. He has no status.

Man Is God's Reflection

Because man is created in God's likeness he possesses all the qualities of his creator, by reflection. As each ray of light from the sun is an expression of the nature and quality of that orb, even so, in a far higher sense, the true being of each one of us manifests infinite Mind, or God. This illustration gives one a clear sense of his inseparability from God, and helps one to see the necessity of intelligently denying the existence of any mind except God, the divine Mind.

The logic is indeed lame which declares that God, divine Spirit, has created man as he is seen through material sense and explained by physiology and anatomy. Such logic falls before the revelation and demonstration of Christian Science.

If God creates mortals or aids in their creation, then He must be a limited and finite deity. Such a belief detracts from the majesty of God, it beclouds His wisdom, belittles His intelligence, denies the teachings of Jesus and the apostles, and precludes demonstration of spiritual being.

Is not God omnipotent Spirit? Is He not infinite Mind, eternal Truth, and ever-present divine Love? Is He not omniscient Life? The Scriptures declare that He is, and also indicate that He is the Soul of all true existence, and the Principle—not a principle, but the one divine Principle of man and the universe.

Spirit, Mind, Truth, Love, Life, Soul, Principle—these are synonymous terms. Carefully considered, they are seen to indicate God's unchangeable goodness and loving-kindness, His wholeness, His allness, together with the perfection of man and the universe, which are embraced in the allness of that one omnipotent, omniscient, and omnipresent Being. Christian Science is teaching men to understand God as He is revealed through these synonymous terms and to utilize their knowledge of Him as Jesus did in the healing of sickness, sorrow, and sin.

Lesson Theme "Mind"

"There is a spirit in man: and the inspiration of the Almighty giveth them understanding." This declaration from Job will be the Golden Text in the Sunday Lesson-Sermon on "Mind" in all branches of The Mother Church, The First Church of Christ, Scientist, in Boston.

According to a Lesson-Sermon account from Mark, Jesus "came unto the sea of Galilee, . . . And they bring unto him one that was deaf, and had an impediment in his speech; and they beseech him to put his hand upon him. . . . And looking up to heaven, he sighed, and saith unto him, Ephphatha, that is, Be opened. And straightway his ears were opened, and the string of his tongue was loosed, and he spake plain."

"There is more Christianity in seeing and hearing spiritually than materially," writes Mary Baker Eddy in "Science and Health with Key to the Scriptures." She continues, "There is more Science in the perpetual exercise of the Mind-faculties than in their loss. Lost they cannot be, while Mind remains. The apprehension of this gave sight to the blind and hearing to the deaf centuries ago, and it will repeat the wonder."

Community Church
Board Endorses
Hospital Campaign

Backing the campaign for the Palm Springs Community Hospital to the limit, the official board of the Community church, at its meeting Tuesday evening, adopted the following resolution:

The Community church views with favor the efforts now being made to secure a much needed hospital for Palm Springs.

That they encourage any and all, both members and those who worship with us and who contemplate making gifts toward the hospital, that they earmark their gifts in favor of the church, so that the Community church may receive credit for the same, having in mind the attainment of the suggested quota of $5,000.00.

To accomplish this, those sending in money in any form, should attach words in keeping with the above resolution, so that the hospital drive treasurer may so indicate on his books.

Among notables at the Doll House this week were Ricardo Cortez, Johnny Wesimuller, Burgess Meredith, Paulette Goddard and Van Johnson.

Day of Prayer
Services Held
At St. Paul's

The annual World Day of Prayer of the United Christian Churches was held Friday, February 16th in the Episcopal church of St. Paul's in the Desert. Deaconess Ethel L. Spencer led the congregation in Worship, Thanksgiving, Confession, Intercession and Dedication.

The St. Cecilia Girl's Choir under the direction of Mrs. Emil Wagner, with Mrs. Eber D. Kanaga at the organ, sang the congregational hymns, entering the church in procession, led by Marilyn Denton, cross-bearer.

Six little girls lighted colored candles in turn to symbolize the wartime prayers: Blue, Sandra Small, mourning for loved ones; Red, Lydia Boyd for wounded service men and women; Brown, Diane Cross for those bombed out of house and home; Green, Sally Jo Pulitzer for farmers and migrant workers feeding the world; Yellow, Shipley Lockett for missionaries and chaplains bringing light; White, Ann Oliver for all innocent children in want and suffering. Mrs. John S. Lapp and Mrs. Edward H. Maggard acted as ushers and offerings were taken for the work of the United Council of Church Women.

Holy Week, Good
Friday Plans
Now Completed

Plans for Holy Week and Good Friday service have been completed at the Community church. Sunday school members have been given attractive containers in which they are asked to bring an offering for Easter. A reward was announced for the one bringing in the most.

The Easter gifts of the church go to the San Anselmo theological seminary located just north of San Francisco.

The seminary is celebrating its 75th anniversary and a program of expansion is under way.

"The Palm Springs church desires to have a large part in building up this school from which must come a steady supply of young ministers to man the pulpits of the Pacific coast area," said Dr. J. R. Macartney, pastor.

In eastern lands they talk in flowers, and tell in a garland their loves and cares.

Shannons Hope
To Get Back to California Soon

Dr. J. R. Macartney, pastor of Community church, this week received an interesting letter from former mayor Frank V. Shannon and Mrs. Shannon. They are enjoying their stay in the south and are now at Camden, South Carolina.

Mrs. Shannon writes that "both feel quite all right, the cold crisp nights seem to put new life in us. We found the weather in St. Petersburg very depressing, warm during the day and part of the night, then foggy, cold and damp".

They are anxious to get back to California although "we have had a wonderful rest and feel better for it even though so far from all those we love," Mrs. Shannon concluded.

Change in Plumbing Code is Proposed

First reading of an ordinance amending ordinance No. 30 to permit changes in the plumbing code asked by the WPB to build needed housing, was heard by council Wednesday.

The change would permit 3-inch soil pipe for houses with but one bath and kitchen instead of 4-inch as required now.

The WPB requested the change because of the shortage in critical material.

Assemblyman Boyd Gives Impressions Of Legislature

Assemblyman Philip L. Boyd was the speaker yesterday when Palm Springs Lions met at the Desert Inn in luncheon session and told of his impressions of the state legislature as noted during his first session at Sacramento.

He spoke in an interesting manner of the make-up of the assembly and of the different walks of life from which the assemblymen came. He also spoke briefly of bills introduced during the first half and told of the manner by which some became law.

He described the Mt. San Jacinto Mountain Park Authority bill, commonly known as the Tramway plan, which he introduced and spoke optimistically of its chances for success. He also touched on the county flood control bill and others which he had put into the legislative mill. Harold Hicks was program chairman for the day.

Merrill Crockett, Alvin Weingarten, President Charles Burket and Gordon Feelings spoke on the Community Hospital drive and the need for all to give to the utmost because it was a Palm Springs permanent institution and much needed here.

President Burket presided.

Haven't Seen Anything Yet, Says Former Newspaperman, Regular Visitor for 25 Years, Commenting on Village Future

Predicting a post war development and population increase for Palm Springs on a scale unprecedented, Guy Price, Beverly Hills business man and for many years an editor and columnist of the Hearst newspaper chain, arrived last week for a month's sojourn on the desert.

The opinion of a man expert in real estate trends and community development, who has been coming to Palm Springs for over a quarter of a century, carries weight and Mr. Price's expressions may be taken with the proper degree of authority and conviction.

STILL IN INFANCY

"Palm Springs citizens quite modestly may claim a great future for their city," said Mr. Price. "But in their wildest flights of imagination and enthusiasm they can hardly comprehend the great influx of newcomers, particularly Easterners and Middle-Westerners, and the vast investments planned for Palm Springs. The town is yet in its infancy."

Operating in Beverly Hills, Los Angeles and the Santa Monica beach district and in close contact with the army of investors that is flocking to Southern California, Price is in a position to ascertain first hand the plans of the thousands migrating from East to West and evaluate the importance of the great investments being made.

WHERE TO PUT THEM

"You may think Palm Springs has mushroomed fast, and I see a tremendous growth each succeeding year, but," says Price, "you haven't seen anything yet. Palm Springs, like Beverly Hills and the western part of Los Angeles is the ultimate goal of so many people I don't know where we are going to put them all. Many hundreds with whom I have talked want to divide their time between the coastal area and the desert, and Palm Springs, in the opinion of all, offers many fine opportunities for good, sound investments."

The former newspaperman well remembers when people, and they were legion, said that Palm Springs grammar school on Palm Canyon drive was the northern city limit and there would be no development beyond that point.

"How wrong they were! The time is not far off when the present developed sections will be so expanded and enlarged that the 1945 boundaries will appear dwarfed. Palm Springs hasn't yet reached any thing like her potential development."

WANT TO COME

Five out of ten winter visitors whom Price has contacted in Los Angeles speak or write enthusiastically of Palm Springs and its many advantages both climatically and from a business viewpoint, and express their intention of coming here to see what all the Hozzanans are about.

Mr. Price is accompanied by his wife and sub-deb daughter, Laura Ann, and has taken the Austin McManus residence, "San Andreas", for a month. Their son, Guy Price, Jr., and wife were up last week for the golf tournament, Mr. Price, who is a member of the Los Angeles Country Club, placing fifth in the large and fast amateur field of contestants.

MUSEUM NOTES

By T. D. A. Cockerell

At the Desert Museum, in the east wing of the Library building, there will be a program Saturday evening, February 24, on "Desert Flowers and Their Visitors". Prof. Cockerell will give a lecture illustrated with motion pictures of "The Bumblebee," and "Guests of the Flowers". The Museum is open from 7 to 9:30. The program begins at 7:30.

On Wednesday evening, February 28, the subject of the program is "How Desert Plants Reproduce". Prof. Cockerell will lecture and there will be an exhibit of wind-borne seeds. There will also be motion pictures.

GO TOGETHER

Although science and invention progress through the work of specialists, it has happened in several noteworthy instances that the work done in one department is of the utmost importance in another. When we consider the development of biology, it is very largely due to the invention of printing, and later on, the invention of the microscope. These are not in themselves biological inventions, but it is hard to imagine what modern biology could be without them. The staining of the cells was another trick, if you choose to call it so, which opened up a new vision of the processes of life. One does not need to be very old to remember when motion pictures were first shown, and the doubts expressed as to their value. We have the time-lapse pictures, in which, using a clock, it is possible to take pictures at regular intervals, and combining these in a series, show the slow movements of a plant, for instance, as occurring rapidly, so that the plant seems to move like an animal. But still more remarkable are the slow-motion pictures, made by speeding up the camera. For some years we had such pictures as Knight's Golden Eagle, in which the camera takes 64 pictures in a second, and it is possible to see just how the bird flies, and the graceful motion of the wings.

But not long ago, Mr. Guy Haselton of Hollywood, preparing for us a new copy of his humming-bird film, inserted to our great astonishment and pleasure a little piece of film by Professor H. E. Egerton, of Massachusetts Institute of Technology showing the flight of the bird taken with a camera which made a thousand pictures in a second. The whole piece of film had taken less than half a second in actual time, and it shows the wings of the little bird as if they moved slowly up and down, and makes it possible to count the beats. We later learned that a film could be purchased from the M.I.T., showing how such pictures were obtained, and a number of examples of the results. One picture, showing the movements of a fly, was taken at a speed of six thousand pictures a second. This new picture is being shown every day in the museum, and people have an opportunity to witness one of the greatest inventions of this or any other time. Through it, it will be possible to analyze motion, and understand processes, biological or otherwise, in new ways. Like the X-rays, it will doubtless be found to have important uses not yet dreamed of.

Egerton, of Massachusetts Institute of Technology showing the flight of the bird taken with a camera which made a thousand pictures in a second. The whole piece of film had taken less than half a second in actual time, and it shows the wings of the little bird as if they moved slowly up and down, and makes it possible to count the beats. We later learned that a film could be purchased from the M.I.T., showing how such pictures were obtained, and a number of examples of the results. One picture, showing the movements of a fly, was taken at a speed of six thousand pictures a second. This new picture is being shown every day in the museum, and people have an opportunity to witness one of the greatest inventions of this or any other time. Through it, it will be possible to analyze motion, and understand processes, biological or otherwise, in new ways. Like the X-rays, it will doubtless be found to have important uses not yet dreamed of.

Winter Visitor Is Laid to Rest

Dr. J. R. Macartney, pastor of Community church, officiated this noon at services at the Wee Kirk of the Heather, Forest Lawn, at last rites said for Edward Cox Thomas, brother of the wife of Bill Hay, well known radio star and many times a visitor here.

Mr. Thomas died Wednesday at his Los Angeles home. He was well known here among the wide circle of friends of Mr. and Mrs. Hay.

Mr. and Mrs. A. J. Sadler of San Francisco, were prominent visitors in the Village this week. Mr. Sadler is a well known San Francisco restaurateur and owner of Sadler's Steaks on Geary street.

Albany, Ore. to Lose Many Civic Leaders at Once

Albany, Ore., is going to lose a lot of civic officials all in one man when G. Carroll Waller resigns, as he says he is going to.

With Mrs. Waller he recently came to the desert and liked it so well he decided to stay. Their plans included the purchase of the George Adams Motel and Trailer Park at Cathedral City.

In Albany he was coordinator of civilian defense, chairman of the ration board, war bond committee, War Chest and payroll saving plan. He is also past president of Albany Kiwanis and was active in the chamber of commerce.

Seal Sale Short Of Desired Goal

Riverside County Tuberculosis association was "mopping up" today in the annual Christmas Seal sale with cash returns of $22,230 received against a goal set at $25,000.

Mrs. Mary French, county secretary, said that "follow-up" appeals to meet the goal are having fine results.

She said that the campaign must reach its goal to finance the standard program in the county and was confident that it would.

In Palm Springs, under guidance of Mrs. Barney Hinkle and Mrs. Leo Baker, the assigned quota was far more than met.

Plan Field Trip To Chino Canyon

A field trip to Chino canyon will be sponsored by the Desert Museum tomorrow with S/Sgt. Kenneth B. Garner, mineralogist and geologist, supervising. Those desiring to go will meet at the Museum at 10 a. m., and the return will be made about 1 p. m. There is no charge for the trip.

Voluminous report of the city's financial status was received from Harry R. Bonnell, auditor, this week, and placed on file by city council.

Curb and Sidewalk Project Started Opposite School

Workmen this week started operations straightening out the westerly side of Palm Canyon drive from Alejo road north one block, opposite Frances Stevens school, and installing sidewalks and curbing in that block and along Alejo road west to Bellardo road.

The project is the result of months of negotiations by City Manager Ray Sorum with the state highway commission which has jurisdiction over Palm Canyon drive.

The state recently agreed to the installation asking only that the city construct a seven-foot walk and curb instead of ten-foot as outlined by the city planning commission. City planners agreed to the change and work started this week.

The new curb will eliminate the jog on the west side of the Drive at Alejo. The city did the engineering work on the project and Harry Mustascio, owner of the property affected, is paying for the work.

TORNEY GENERAL HOSPITAL EVENTS

News of the Enlisted Men of the Medical and Quartermaster Detachments at Torney Army General Hospital, Palm Springs
By PFC. TED W. ENGSTROM

PATIENTS TO AIR SHOWS OVER CBS-

The Columbia Broadcasting System is inaugurating a series of weekly fifteen-minute radio shows, to be aired over its Los Angeles station, KNX, produced by the General Hospitals of this region, and using patients as talent.

Torney General Hospital will be featured for its first in a series of such shows around the middle of March. Educational Reconditioning is in charge of the project, with the Public Relations and Special Services offices co-operating.

Cpl. Vic Blanks, assisted by Pfc. Herb Vigran, will be the GI producer and KNX will provide a CBS production man at the broadcast.

Patients interested should see Cpl. Blanks, Pfc. Vigran, or go to the Reconditioning office in Bldg. 75. Men or women, officer or enlisted patients, are invited to try out for a part in the program. Instrumentalists, vocalists and actors are needed.

Educational Reconditioning at this time is also beginning a series of classes in the arts of radio broadcasting, which will meet in Building 75 each Wednesday and Thursday at 1600. The class will be instructed by Cpl. Blanks, formerly staff announcer with the National Broadcasting Company in Denver, and Pfc. Vigran, Hollywood screen and radio actor.

PRESENT SMASH HIT

The patients and personnel of Torney General Hospital will this week be treated to something different by way of entertainment. Instead of the usual USO-Camp Show personnel or stars of radio and screen who generally visit the hospital to entertain the local GIs will glimpse the presentation of the smash hit "Personal Appearance," which stars in all the male roles convalescent GIs, all of whom are currently patients at the Army's Birmingham General Hospital at Van Nuys. The show, which is being brought here under the auspices of Torney General Hospital Special Services and Reconditioning branches, is a product of the Educational and Reconditioning program now functioning at Birmingham. "Personal Appearance" is a terrific comedy, having run on Broadway in 1930 and for over 400 consecutive performances in 1942. Gladys George was the star of the original cast and Mae West was featured in the movie version. The Birmingham group also presented it with outstanding success in Los Angeles.

Headlining the supporting list of notables in the feminine leads are Lyn Sherman and Lillian Fontaine, both well known for stage and screen work. The show will be presented at the Post theater at 1300, Thursday, 22 February, especially for the patients of the hospital.

NAMED NEW CO

Major Samuel Levin, former Chief Reconditioning Officer, has been named the Commanding Officer of the Enlisted Section, SCU 1976, effective last Tuesday. Maj. Levin has served as CO of other army units, and just prior to coming to Torney last December, commanded a Medical Detachment at Camp Lee, Virginia. He is a veteran of overseas service in the last war.

Capt. Thomas B. Greer is now assistant CO of the Section and Unit Supply Officer.

Succeeding Maj. Levin as Chief Reconditioning Officer is Capt. Charles S. Gage, formerly Chief of the Educational Reconditioning Branch. Capt. Edward M. Toloff has been named Director of the Reconditioning Division, succeeding Col. R. J. Wharton, who has been transferred.

FULL CLASS SCHEDULE

Educational classes for patients have started but it is still not too late to join a class of your choice. Your interest is all that is needed to enroll. If your reconditioning program does not give you the classes you want to take, see Sgt. Kimball in the Reconditioning Office and he will do his best to rearrange your schedule to suit your plans.

Lee Sennett is teaching shorthand in room 104 in the B building from 1300-1400; Lt. Newman of the Army Engineers has the algebra class every day at 1015 in the O.C. building; Mrs. Cagan, wife of Lt. Cagan and a former

Torney Executive Officer Advanced To Lt. Colonel

Announcement was made at Torney General Hospital this week of advancement to the rank of Lt. Colonel for C. M. Prince, executive officer.

Lt. Colonel Prince arrived at Torney in May, 1944, and served as adjutant until September when he succeeded Lt. Colonel E. T. Thompson as executive.

He has been engaged in Army Medical Administration since shortly after his enlistment in 1928. At Camp Grant, he activated the Army Administration School, which during his three-year command, trained approximately 3000 enlisted men in every branch of Army Administrative work.

His former stations have included Fort Knox, Kentucky; Fitzsimmons General Hospital, Denver, Colorado; Camp Grant, Illinois, and he has completed two tours of duty in Panama.

high school English teacher, is teaching a class in Fundamental English grammar, from 1300-1400 in the O.C. building.

At 1500 in the same classroom, Pvt. Juliette Page is conducting a class in Basic French. Start now! She really knows her stuff. Pvt. Page will also hold Spanish classes several times a week, in the evening. If the interest of the enlisted personnel and the civilian employees on the post is sufficient to warrant it. Watch the bulletin boards and sign up if you want to learn this language. Patients may join this class also but there will soon be a regular class in Spanish every day at 1400 in the O.C. building taught by Capt. Nac.

PROVES POPULAR

One of the most unsung men around this place is Leo Rojo, more commonly known as just Leo of "Felix and Leo," currently playing at the Colonial House.

Our perennial piano-pounding performer has been coming to Torney at least once, and many times, twice a week for many many months. All through the long hot summer, Leo never failed to come over and play for his boys. And he won't get off. If it weren't that the Reconditioning Program must go on, Leo would play forever.

More recently, he has been touring the wards, and Special Services has quite a time getting him to stop in one ward so he can move on to the next. Loving to entertain the patients as much as he loves music makes Leo one of the best and most reliable one-man combinations we've ever had here. Any time we need an accompanist for a visiting singing star, it's Leo who volunteers.

He doesn't want any credit, but he certainly deserves a lot—he's doing a great, unheralded job.

Maj. Knox Manning, former CBS commentator and actor on the Sherlock Holmes program and at present director of WAC recruiting in Southern California, and Maj. Madelyn Jennings, WAC, from the WAC Recruiting Office in Los Angeles, were recent visitors at Torney, reviewing this hospital and gathering material for their drive for recruiting WAC medical technicians to be stationed here.

Ninety technicians are to be recruited for TGH. When enlisting, these WACs may name the hospital in which they desire to be stationed. They are sent first for six weeks training at Ft. Oglethorpe, Ga., six more weeks at Camp Atterbury, Ind., and then are assigned to the hospital of their choice. Maj. Jennings stated that already several recruits had chosen Torney and will soon be reporting for duty. The local Public Relations Office has supplied the Los Angeles Recruiting Office with information concerning the hospital for use in their newspaper releases and publicity.

CHANGE—At the top, Lt. George Holtorf, new public relations officer at the 21st Ferrying Group, ATC, base here who replaced Capt. Robert Maxwell. Maxwell started his new duties at Dallas.

Son of Villagers Is Crew Chief, 14th Air Force

S/Sgt. Robert S. Groom, son of Mr. and Mrs. Curtis S. Groom of Palm Springs, is currently assigned to the A.A.F. Redistribution station No. 4 at the Santa Ana Army Air Base. He is a crew chief with the 14th Air Force in the European and Asiatic theaters.

He entered the service in September 26, 1941 and went overseas in November, 1942. He is entitled to wear the European and Asiatic theater ribbons with four battle stars.

At this redistribution station, an operation of the Personal Distribution Command, combat returnees of the AAF receive complete medical examination, classification interviews and reassignment to domestic stations of the army air forces.

Uncle Sam Plans Birthday Gift For Joe Marino

Joe Marino, pianist at The Dunes who has been delighting large throngs there, found out this week that he has a birthday present coming from Uncle Sam next month. It will be a uniform with two pairs of pants and a full outfit of accessories, he said.

His 29th birthday is on March 5.

On March 6 he will go to India to be inducted into the army.

Patrick Shealy at Occidental Event

Patrick Terrance Shealy, son of Mr. and Mrs. James A. Shealy of Palm Springs, was among apprentice seamen of the Navy Training Unit at Occidental College, Los Angeles, who were honored at a gala ball given by the Associated Students of the college.

Many notables were present at the affair.

Councilman's Son Sees Action Near Homeland of Japs

Walter Z. Allen, real estate broker and local manager for the Palm Springs Corporation, Village developers, had the longest letter from his son, Walter Z., Jr., that he has had since the latter went overseas some months ago. Somewhere near the front, the son had located a typewriter.

The younger Allen, who resigned from a civilian engineer's job he had taken some time before the United States entered the war to become a Seabee, said he was somewhere near Tokyo and would probably be farther than that soon.

A significant paragraph in the letter intimated that many of the men in the Seabees might stay in the Orient after the war to take reconstruction and other jobs rather than take a chance on work in the home country.

Walter Allen, Jr., has gained an enviable reputation in the engineering field in the Pacific area.

Sgt. Sanard Adds Overseas Stripe No. 5

Staff Sergeant Lloyd B. Sanard, son of Mr. and Mrs. Lyle J. Sanard, is busily sewing on his fifth overseas stripe after completing more than 30 months overseas duty with a veteran troop carrier group of the 12th Air Force.

Sanard is a radio operator with duties that play an important part in the work of his group, which includes the flying of ammunition, arms, food, and personnel up to the front lines, evacuation of wounded, and during invasions, the towing of gliders carrying airborne infantry, and the dropping of paratroopers behind enemy defenses.

For distinguished service performed in the China-Burma-India Theater, his group has been awarded the War Department Unit Citation. His group has also given outstanding performances in the invasions of North Africa, Sicily, Italy and Southern France.

Jerry Tracy Has Rough Voyage

Harold O. Tracy this week received word from his son, Jerry, former high school athletic ace, now in the navy and at sea after completing his training at San Diego.

The younger Tracy wrote his dad that he was off the coast when last weekend's storm hit and said the trip was really something but that all vessels and personnel came through unscathed.

five from Redlands who work 8 hours each Wednesday and Thursday and have pledged to continue this service through the summer.

Mrs. Dorothy Stein, who has been on regular duty at the hospital since December, 1943, with the exception of last August and September, supervises the scheduling of Nurses Aide assignments at Torney, where she will soon complete a thousand hours volunteer service.

IMPORTANT FACTS

Pertaining to the Proposed Palm Springs Community Hospital

BEDS ALONE DO NOT MAKE A HOSPITAL. Back of every project of this sort there must be an adequate reserve fund.

The cost of the hospital, fully equipped, will be approximately $150,000. The site has already been generously donated.

The Board of Directors, by voluntary contribution, have raised a fund to bare all expenses so far in the hospital drive.

This was done to make it possible to keep all other contributions intact for use in Building and Equipping the Hospital.

When $200,000 has been raised, the hospital will be built and will have a cash reserve that will insure operating expenses for several years, until it becomes self-sustaining.

The future of this hospital will be assured by the good business management which will be provided through the efforts of capable local men and women, business people and residents, of our own community.

Prospective contributors are urged to consider:

No. 1 – Contributions may be deducted for tax purposes.

No. 2 – Contributions definitely made can be budgeted over a series of payments covering more than one year.

The proposed hospital is a non-profit corporation intended to safeguard the health of EVERYONE living or visiting in Palm Springs or vicinity.

OWI Chief Coming March 1 to Talk At Public Forum

Dr. Claude A. Buss, director of the Western Division of the Office of War Information, will speak at the free public forum meeting scheduled to be held Thursday evening, March 1, in the auditorium of the Frances Stevens School auditorium. Dr. Buss, a repatriated prisoner from Tokyo and the Philippines, and formerly a professor at U. S. C., will speak to the subject, "What Kind of Victory in the Pacific?"

FOURTH IN SERIES

He is the fourth speaker in the mid-winter forum series devoted to the theme, "Are We Winning the War?" The meeting will start at 7:30 p. m. and will be conducted under the auspices of the Palm Springs Union High School. The high school office this week entered into a contract to have Dr. Rufus von Kleinsmid, President of the University of Southern California, address the local forum group on Thursday evening, March 15.

ATTENDANCE HIGH

Attendance for the mid-winter series of meetings has exceeded all previous records, according to Dr. Ernest E. Oertel, moderator for the forum programs. On February 15 Rabbi Edgar F. Magnin, despite unfavorable weather, addressed a total of 560 civilians and military personnel in two separate programs.

Dr. Claude Buss enjoys an excellent reputation as a forum speaker. He is known widely in California as a popular speaker on subjects relating to affairs in the Pacific.

State May See That None Will Be "Fenced In"

Eugene V. Griffes, trail master for the Desert Riders and who has been instrumental in keeping trails around the Village in shape for equestrians, spotted this editorial in The Los Angeles Times the other day and sent it in with the notation:

"Think this article will be of interest to all riders here and worth a little space."

The editorial follows:

"DON'T FENCE ME IN!"

Want to get on a horse and ride off into the sunset? Maybe you can one of these days.

The tentative draft of a legislative bill providing for a State-wide system of trails for riders and hikers has been announced by John M. Diggs of Sacramento, chairman of a project committee of the State Reconstruction and Re-employment Commission. This draft fills in measures introduced by Sen. Tenney, Assemblymen Burkhalter, Stephenson, Thompson and Carey.

The bill proposes the creation of a "California riding and hiking trails advisory committee" operating under the supervision of the State Park Commission.

"California already has numerous trails in State and national parks and forests, which are of great historical value, but which are wholly or partly inaccessible," Diggs said. "It is proposed to create new interconnecting trails reaching population centers by which hikers and horsemen may enjoy the foothills and mountain trails, with stopover shelters at appropriate hiking and riding intervals."

Where's that saddle!

Masonic Club To Meet Tuesday

Palm Springs Masonic Club will hold its monthly luncheon meeting next Tuesday noon, at the Desert Inn, and have invited all Village and visiting Masons to attend.

President Lloyd Simon is making an earnest appeal to all wishing to attend, to make reservations on or before Saturday. It is pointed out that the large attendance at these luncheons makes it imperative that the Inn have ample notice of number to provide for well in advance. Masons are asked to cooperate with the officers by making reservations immediately and sending check for $1.50 (servicemen $1.25) to John Archibald, secretary-treasurer, at the Palm Springs Drug company.

Speaker for the occasion will be Lt. Commr. Burnham of the Norco Naval hospital.

They joys of heaven will begin as soon as we attain the character of heaven and do its duties.

Zone Law Change, C. of C. Fund, Passed by City

Two ordinance were passed by city council Wednesday.

One incorporated the changes in zoning laws recently recommended by the Planning Commission on Amado road, Arenas road and in the southeast section of the city and also prohibiting any new service stations on Palm Canyon drive. It passed unanimously.

The other appropriated $1,000 for publicity purposes for the Chamber of Commerce. The vote on this was five to one, Councilmen Maurice McCann, Culver Nichols, Clarence Hyde, Walter Allen and Mayor E. E. Theriault voting 'yes' and Councilman Armand Turonnet, who based his vote on the need for drawing the line on expenditures somewhere, voting 'no'.

Income Tax Man at Council Chambers

Leland S. Spargur of the income tax collectors office will be at the city council chambers here today and tomorrow to help Villagers with their income tax, deadline for which is March 15.

The tax deputy came here yesterday for the three day period.

Mr. and Mrs. Alfred Shaber are guests at the Desert Inn while Mr. Shaber, a leading restaurant in peace times but now with the war department food inspection service, is here on official business.

Librarian of Air Base Here Among First Overseas

The librarian of the 21st Ferrying Group base at Palm Springs, Miss Edith Shumaker, is enjoying the honor of being one of the first eight professional army librarians to be given overseas duty and she will leave the base on about March 1 to go abroad.

Popular at the Ferrying Division ATC base here with all in uniform, Miss Shumaker is also known in the Village, in part by her unusual blue uniform with the Rainbow Division's fan-shaped insignia.

It is just about a year since Miss Shumaker arrived here to build, practically from scratch, a library to serve the needs of our military and civilian personnel.

The move was announced to Miss Shumaker by Xenophon P. Smith, Ninth Service Command Librarian.

The library will continue to function under the Personnel Ser-

The Rev. Robert M. Hogarth, vicar of St. Paul's in the Desert, Episcopal church, addressed the Palm Springs Rotarians at their meeting at the Desert Inn Wednesday, talking on the life of George Washington.

Cathedral City

By W. R. HILLERY

BY THE PINCH-HITTER

While Reporter W. R. Hillery is taking that much needed rest, we are trying out our journalistic wings.

On Feb. 19th, Pres. Wolseth opened the annual meeting of the Cathedral City Chamber of Commerce for the purpose of electing seven directors to replace those whose terms expired on that date. Of these seven, four were retained, and Mr. Greener, Mr. Cordell and Mr. Higgins were the three new ones elected.

It was with regret that the organization accepted the resignation of Director W. L. Jordan.

The by-laws require that the directors meet within ten days to elect officers for the ensuing year. Pres. Wolseth will announce the date and mail notices.

This also marks a milestone in the progress of the Chamber of Commerce for on this date the organization was presented a deed and title policy to the Town Hall by the four trustees. The title is vested to the Cathedral City Chamber of Commerce, Inc. Now the Cactus Jumpers can burn the mortgage!

A brief report by the Committee Members on the Cactus Jumpers Jamboree was led by Chairman Carl Higgins and from where we sat it was "in the bag". The meeting was then adjourned.

The Jamboree will be Saturday February 24 from one p. m. to midnight. The Cactus Jumpers will be on their annual prow. Some will be 'cake-walking' while others enjoy a "new" type of picture—just imagine seeing yourself as others see you!!!

The dinner will be from five p. m. to eight p. m. A hint: don't miss it! After the dinner there will be, besides dancing, games and entertainment and for others just a good time get-together.

F/O and Mrs. John Cason have gone to Los Angeles to welcome Mr. Cason's brother who is just back from two years overseas.

Mr. and Mrs. Willard Price are out of town for a few days.

Mrs. Thelma Valiquette is in Loma Linda hospital. Hurry home, Thelma, we miss you.

Mrs. Leo Brown is able to be out in the sun. Our best wishes to this courageous lady.

Lt. Olive Hood Hale is suffering from an infection in her arm caused by third degree burns. Under the care of our Dr. Wilbur, we know you will be up and out soon.

Mrs. Sarah Hudson, aunt of Mrs. Hillery, is not so well, and is under Dr. Wilbur's care too.

Mr. and Mrs. W. L. Jordan, since disposing of their property here, will make their home in Balboa Beach.

We welcome Miss Velma Sprinkle, Mr. John Kelley, Mrs. J. S. McMahon, Mr. and Mrs. M. G. Hamilton, Mr. A. H. Meyer, Mrs. A. Hambre, whose husband is overseas, Mr. and Mrs. S. T. Woodell, Mrs. Eleanor Malter and children, Jay and Lynn, and Mr. C. E. Sonnenmaker and George C. Waller.

A real sign of the growth of a community is in the new businesses that open. Cathedral City is proud to welcome a Radio Repair Shop which also has an interesting line of curios and gifts, and a Watch Repair Shop with a small line of jewelry. Watch for their ads elsewhere in this paper. And only today came an inquiry for a business building for a Refrigerator Repair Shop. Good luck to these men who have chosen our town for their future.

Adios to Mr. and Mrs. E. E. Austin, Cora Foot, Mrs. E. E. Darling, Mrs. E. M. Duffy, E. A. English, Mrs. Phillip S. Ordway and Mrs. Larry Schlade.

KEEP CATHEDRAL CITY CLEAN AND BEAUTIFUL

WHAT DOES YOUR STREET NEED

This is the third of a series of articles published through the courtesy of The Desert Sun and designed to get everyone in this community interested in making the highway and streets of Cathedral City clean of rocks and shrubs.

The work of cleaning has begun. The west end of the highway was cleared by a handful of volunteer men headed by Dick Landucci, chairman of the road committee. The result speaks convincingly for itself and to these men we say congratulations and thanks. To carry on the work more volunteers are needed. More workmen are needed. Perhaps there are men here in the desert who would like to earn $1.00 per hour and do a good deed for Cathedral City as well. Please telephone 4512 and state what days you can come between the hours of eight and twelve. Tools will be provided.

Many people have responded with their financial aid. Others have taken it upon themselves to clean the street in front of their own properties as well as the vacant lot next door. These are to be commended for their cooperation for the good of the whole community. The clean street in front, the clean lot next door, an attractive highway through your town, increases your satisfaction in living here as well as the value of your property. It is the best kind of advertising.

President Frank Russell put it well when he said recently, "What we do now to improve the beauty and character of our town not only counts for now, but will influence to a great extent what the town will be like five or ten years from now".

Please let us make and keep Cathedral City a clean and lovely place in which to live. Do what you can to help. AND DO IT NOW.

CIVIC IMPROVEMENT ASSOCIATION,
Cathedral City.

No Protest Made On Transfer of Murray License

City Council Wednesday filed without protest a notice from the state board of equalization of a request for a transfer of an on-sale beer and wine license, owned by Frank Murray, from his Escadrille cafe, 190 West Amado road, to his new restaurant in the El Dorado hotel, 270 South Palm Canyon drive.

Mr. Murray plans to open a cafe in the hotel and, since the attorney general recently ruled city zone laws, which prohibit sale on Amado road, supercede authority of the state board, he asked that the license be transferred to his new cafe, where zoning laws do not interfere.

Nation's Top Net Stars to Play in Tennis Tournament

The annual Palm Springs Tennis tournament which will attract many net notables, will be played Friday, Saturday and Sunday, March 2, 3 and 4, Perry Jones, secretary of the Southern California Tennis association, announced this week.

The tournament is staged by the Palm Springs Associates under direction of the Southern California association.

FINALS AT TORNEY

This year it will be staged primarily to entertain Torney General Hospital patients and all final matches will be played on their courts. Opening rounds will be played on the courts of the Racquet club, Palm Springs Tennis club, Desert Inn and Torney. Official referee will be Col. A. B. Jones, commanding officer at Torney.

A stellar list of entries is being received in all divisions.

MANY STARS LISTED

Women's events will be headed by Pauline Betz, national champion; Margaret E. Osborne, of San Francisco, runner up for national championship last year; A. Louise Grough, the third ranking player in the country; Mrs. Sarah Palfry Cooke, 1941 national champion, and twelve other ranking women players on the Pacific Coast. Jinx Faulkenberg will also play.

The men's events will be strenuous, headed by Air Cadet Robert Faulkenberg, men's double champion of the United States and easily the finest young player in the world today. (He has already won twelve national championships). Elwood Cooke, also a very fine player, formerly world's double champion and runner up for men's single championship of the world.

There are three friendships which are advantageous: friendship with the upright with the sincere, and with the man of much observation.

All-Americans to Perform in Cage Contest March 3

There will be All-American color and collegiate stars aplenty in action to provide Villagers with the best basketball show so far this season on March 3 at 8 p. m., when the El Centro U. S. Marine Corps aviation base team comes here to play the 21st Ferrying Group post team in a game at the Army Air Base.

The Air Base is to be opened up for civilians to go out and enjoy the contest. Tickets are on hand at a dozen popular spots in town. Those not having rides to the base on the night of the game will find that transportation will be made available.

MAY HAVE TWO

To furnish a special treat for local basketball fans, the air base hopes to schedule a doubleheader. It is hoped that the Marine base can bring a women's team to meet the Palm Springs base WACs and double up the bill.

Winning the last seven straight games, the El Centro Marines have made one of the outstanding records on the Pacific Coast. They have trimmed the San Diego amphibious naval base aggregation, Camp Lockett, and many other fine basketball clubs. The 21st Group All-Stars have also beaten formidable quintets in this section and a fight for the year's honors is in the offing.

MANY HOOP ACES

Some of the Marines flyers' stars who will see action here on March 3 are Pfc. B. Beebe, formerly of Canisus University in New York, who was given All-American honors in 1940. Two men from Illinois—Pfc. Donald Voss and Pfc. L. S. Mayse, and a star of Butler University in Indiana, Pfc. George Butler, will help spike-up the attack of the Marines. Missouri University gave the El Centro quintet two of its players, T/Sgt. George Nelmark and T/Sgt. Albert Schmitz.

Air Base Golf Dates Changed

The first round of four scheduled events at the Palm Springs golf course for personnel of the 21st Ferrying Group at the Army Air Base will be completed by the end of this week, as the men in uniform take the tees in competition for awards given by Villagers.

Dates of the coming rounds are as follows:

First rounds to be completed by February 25, second round by March 4, third round by March 11, and the final round by March 18.

Here are the pairings for the first round: Capt. Caraway vs. Capt. Lomax; Mr. Barker vs. Cpl. Lapolla; Major Hamilton vs. Capt. Gregg; Cpl. Yoder vs. S. Sgt. Oliver; Capt. Anderson vs. Lt. Maffia; Lt. Col. Sponsler (bye) Lt. Gwin vs. F/O White; Capt. Conn vs. Sgt. Vetterino; and Capt. Evans vs. Major Hinton.

Post Bowling Team Defeats Civilians

The new 21st Ferrying Group post bowling team got under way with a victory this week when they out-rolled a local civilian team at Ad Allegrini's alleys by 214 pins in a two game series.

T/Sgt. Bob Sohr rolled a 223 in his second game for high man honors.

Golden Gloves Just Too Tough

Pfc. Ernie Watkins, 21st Ferrying Group middleweight, survived the first bracket in last week's Golden Gloves tournament, but dropped out in the second. He fought the two bouts on the same night.

His victory was over Charles Wingrover, unattached and he was decimated by Joseph Mitchell, unattached, later in the same evening.

Pfc. Amando Espinosa, who only a short time ago, won the lightweight championship of the Ninth Service Command, covering the western area, lost by a decision after three fast rounds in the opening battle to Louis Sandoval of the Hollywood American Legion arena.

Administration Squadron in Lead

The Administration Squadron of the 21st Ferrying Group was out in front all alone in the air base basketball tournament now under way.

They had three victories and no defeats while four teams were tied for second place.

Fresno Golfer Puts on Stirring Finish To Take Tournament

C. H. "Buck" Weaver of Fresno, staged a dazzling last minute drive to successfully defend his title in the Tenth Annual Palm Springs Invitational Golf tournament. Weaver won the tournament last year and now has a double grip on the trophy.

The former Fox Hills ace birdied the 17th hole to break up a three-way tie with Guy Hansen and Johnny Dawson. Then he stayed with par on the last hole for a 66, two under par.

COMES FROM BEHIND

Hansen, the accurate Lakeside senior, had come in early with a 71 to go with Saturday's 65. Dawson, a perennial favorite, fought from behind with a four-foot birdie putt on the last hole to gain a tie with Hansen with a 69. Then two foursomes later, Weaver, carrying a tremendous mental load, rammed home his par to win by a single blow, the stroke he had picked up on the 500-yard No. 17 with a 15-foot putt.

It was a great finish which kept one of the largest galleries to see a tourney here tense all during the sunny afternoon.

HANSEN AHEAD

Hansen had led the field with a 65, three under par for the sport Saturday, O'Donnell course, a nine-hole, 2600-yard layout with a par of 34, or 68 for the two loops. Dawson was sitting back in a second place tie yesterday with Jack Nounnan of Pasadena at 67. Weaver was in four-way tie with Bruce McCormick and Johnny Weismuller at 69. Meanwhile B. J. Bridgeford and Carl Hannan held down third spot with 68.

Hansen played good golf Sunday but two traps and one out of bounds gave him a 71. Dawson started out with three straight bogies, but fought back like the champ he is to tie Hansen.

DEATH ON GREENS

Weaver played his usual methodical game, down the middle and death on the greens which very few others were able to solve. His best shot today was on the 15th hole. From the 8th fairway on his second shot, he wedged his ball over trees and dropped it 20 feet from the pin. It was a great golf shot, and although he missed his putt for a par, it was his lone slip of the day.

Nounnan slipped to third place with 67-72-139. McCormick skidded badly, with a nine on the 17th hole which gave him a 145 total. Guy Price, Jr., of Los Angeles C. C. finished fourth with 140. Johnny Weismuller was a stroke back and Hannan a stroke back of Tarzan.

SENIORS STRONG

For awhile Sunday it looked like the greyhead brigade was going to show up the youngsters as Hansen finished with 136. Dawson, at that time, apparently was out of it, making the turn three over par. But Handsome Jawn never is out until the last putt is down—and this time it was a birdie putt. Weaver was in continual contention, making the turn in 32 and finishing with a 34.

Jim O'Neal Wins Senior Event by 3-Stroke Margin

Expected to break under the pressure, he never lost his stoic calm, kept threading the needle with every shot. Last year, playing out of Fox Hills in Los Angeles, he won with a 139, finishing in a downpour. He's now affiliated with the Ft. Washington club at Fresno—and there was nothing but sunshine today for he and his lovely missus who caddied for him.

County Chamber To Extend Scope Of Highway Group

Board of directors of Riverside county chamber of commerce of which Ray Sorum, city manager of Palm Springs is a member, will complete formation of a highway and transportation committee next week, following creation of such a committee at their meeting last Friday. Mr. Sorum attended the meeting.

The county chamber has had a highway committee in operation for some time but under the new set-up of the group, heretofore confined to road matters, will also include air travel, truck travel and highway works within its scope.

The change in its responsibilities was proposed by Director J. S. Bordwell of Riverside, and unanimously approved by the board.

Membership on the committee will be extended to include every part of the county, with each locality to be represented by two members. Selection of the members now is being completed by the present board and the appointments will be made within 10 days, it was announced by Charles E. Johnson, president.

The Right Goods Plus the Sun— And it's a Deal

M. M. Pavy reporting: "Last week I advertised a 24-foot Cottage Home trailer in the Desert Sun. The next day a man walked in with a copy of the Sun in his hand and there it went. "Since then I'm having to say we are sorry but we are sold out of that type. We'll have another shipment soon."

County Red Cross Chairman Reports On Year's Activity

From information received this morning by Harold C. West, Chairman of Palm Springs branch the annual report of the Riverside County Chapter, American Red Cross, reveals that 12,725 adults served in the chapter's 20 sub-divisions during 1944 to amass a total of more than 207,000 hours of service exclusive of work done in raising the war fund last year and the work of the Junior Red Cross, which has 7,816 members and turned in 160,000 hours of work last year.

GREATEST NUMBER

The report, made by Mary Ellen Pangle, manager, to the Board of Directors recently, shows the production department to have had the greatest number of volunteers, 10,425, having engaged in the work of this department alone. A total of 11,392 of the volunteers gave their time to aiding directly the members of the armed services. Services to civilians, including first aid, home nursing, water safety, and kindred fields, occupied 353 volunteers during the year.

Services to the armed forces likewise accounts for the major portion of the funds spent by the local chapter during the year. Miss Pangle's report stated, $87,436 going directly to that work. About $20,000 went to the county branches for financing their work in their own districts while $10,000 was for general services and administrative expenses at headquarters. $3,072 was used for civilian relief and $1,843 carried on the work of the Junior Red Cross and medical care and rehabilitation of children from the devastated areas such as Poland from which land many children became refugees in North Africa.

RAISE QUARTER MILLION

Last year $249,119.85 was raised in this county during the March War Fund drive and 69.6% of it remained in the county for use of the chapter, the remaining portion going to the national fund for its global work, the report explained.

Beginning on February 28 of this year, the county campaign will again get under way to raise its 1945 quota of $207,000. Allen Long, who headed the campaign last year, is again in charge of the county-wide fund solicitation.

Housing Authority For Palm Springs Created by Council

A resolution creating a Palm Springs Housing authority, under a state law providing for same, was adopted by council Wednesday night.

Under the state law a 5-man commission, nominated by the mayor and approved by the council, will be set up to look after all housing affairs in the Village. The resolution set forth the need for such an authority here and the need for adequate housing.

At the same time four representatives of the Federal Public Housing Authority, acting under the Federal Housing agency, were at the council meeting to outline plans for a federal housing project on the reservation. Twenty-five units are planned and they will be of the type which may be moved after the emergency.

The question of sanitation facilities arose as the federal men said the FHA desired to hook up with the local system. Judge Guy Pinyne, member of the Sanitation district committee, said that would be difficult under the present set up and would entail additional expansion of the sewage disposal plant. He said, however, that some agreement could probably be reached. The four FHFA men then retired to the judicial chambers for conference. They were M. R. Robinson, H. T. Bolla, H. F. Norgard, all of San Francisco and Stanley Wilson of Riverside.

Food Locker Plant Change Authorized

Council Wednesday night approved a recommendation of the Planning Commission allowing a transfer of the Palm Springs Food Locker company permit from South Indian avenue to the 1500 block on North Palm Canyon drive.

R. F. Lockwood, owner, was recently granted a permit to establish his business on South Indian but later asked for the same permit on North Palm Canyon drive.

Army Personnel Plans to Help in Red Cross Drive

Although they receive help in dozens of ways from the American Red Cross, men and women in uniform of the 21st Ferrying Group at the Ferrying Division ATC base here in Palm Springs expect also to do their part during the coming drive of the Red Cross war fund.

The field representative of the Red Cross at the base, Truman Curtis, Jr., has announced the following information to the personnel of the field, showing the work done by his organization. "Red Cross is interested in the welfare of each man in service and attempts, insofar as possible, to bring him the atmosphere of home during off-time duty. This is just one of many Red Cross services, and is provided through chapter, camp, and hospital committees by the equipping and furnishing of sun and day rooms at military and naval installations.

"You may be interested to know that recently the Riverside County Chapter, ARC, furnished the Recreation Room of the Medical Squadron, and the Motor Pool Lounge Room, of this base. So if you hear your buddies telling you they are spending more time 'at home,' it is because they are enjoying the radio, ping-pong table, card tables, and games provided through this recent Red Cross donation."

Dancing Classes Inaugurated by Large Turn-Out

Under the supervision of Don Pasmann, dancing master from New York, the introductory lesson held at Frances S. Stevens school found a great turn-out of boys and girls and parents present. The dancing club is being organized as a membership club, meetings to be held Monday nights through April 30, closing with a spring party.

Plans for the classes were outlined at a luncheon at the Desert Inn when Mr. Pasmann met Mrs. Virginia Cross, Mrs. Arthur Bailey and Mrs. Homer McKee.

Starting classes will meet at Frances Stevens school Monday afternoons, juniors and seniors Monday evenings there and the Collegiate class at the Fiesta House, Desert Inn grounds, Thursday nights.

Labor's Share In War, Subject

"Labor's Contribution to the War Effort" was the topic of Tuesday night's Global Gab session at the Chamber of Commerce at which Sgt. M. Abrams led the discussion.

A large throng was present and refreshments were served. Next Tuesday's subject will be "Economic Plans for Postwar America" and Cpl. L. Schweidan of Torney General Hospital will lead the discussion.

Think all you speak; but speak not all you think: Thoughts are your own; your words are so no more. —Henry DeLaune

Legion Will Join Los Compadres in Sponsoring Rodeo

Owen B. Coffman post, American Legion, in session Tuesday night, voted to join with the Los Compadres club in sponsoring a two-day rodeo March 24 and 25, to back the Community Hospital drive to the fullest extent and heard reports on various activities. Commander Gordon Feekings presided.

Les Moore was named chairman of the rodeo committee and will work with a similar committee from the Los Compadres club on the rodeo. The Post's share of the profits will go toward their World Wars Memorial.

FIRST CONTRIBUTION

Art Wills was named chairman of the committee to fill the Legion's quota in the hospital campaign. George Karoly, visitor from San Francisco, made the first contribution to the Legion's quota and then spoke on the need of the Community Hospital here.

W. P. Johnson, commander of the Eighth district of the American Legion, who with his wife, are guests in the Village, gave the Post an inspirational talk on Legion activities.

STILL FIRST IN STATE

Reports were received that the Owen B. Coffman post is still first in the state of California in percentage of membership gains.

Other routine business occupied the attention of Post members before adjournment. It was one of the largest attended meetings of the Post in months.

Hiller Presents Qualifications For Council Post

Ray Hiller, real estate, a resident of the reservation and in district two, now represented on city council by Charles P. Adams, appeared before council last night and presented his qualifications as a candidate for the council seat.

Mr. Adams recently presented his resignation due to the pressure of other business.

Mr. Hiller said that he believed he was fully qualified for the post and asked council's consideration.

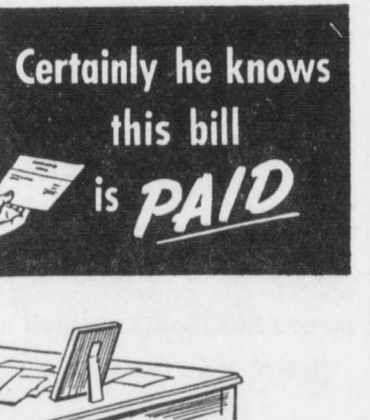

Two other candidates are in the field, Charles St. George, adjutant of Owen B. Coffman post, American Legion, and E. F. Martell, contractor.

Los Compadres Plan Ride Sunday Night

Sunday evening members of Los Compadres club plan a night ride, taking advantage of a bright moon, scheduled that evening, and will proceed out Ramon road several miles east of the city waste plant. They plan to start their ride at 6 o'clock.
